

MORE ABOUT WRIGHT - BYERS

Thornburg Smith, cousin of the bride; and Margie Lorraine Wright, sister of the bridegroom. Junior bridesmaids were Dana Katherine Green and Jo Ann Green, nieces of the bride. Katherine Leann Gilbert, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Thomas Jeffrey Gilbert, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

All the adult bridal attendants wore formal gowns of pink chiffon over taffeta lavishly trimmed with white Venice lace at the cuffs of the long sleeves, the high stand up collars and down the front of the bodices. Their headpieces were of imported horsehair braid loops enhanced with dyed-to-match flowers and trimmed with pearls and dropped with four tiers of silk illusion. They carried bouquets of pink and white carnations tied with pink satin streamers.

The flower girl and junior bridesmaids wore long gowns of pink Saki with accordion pleated bodices trimmed with multi-colored floral braid. The cuffs on the long sleeves and the high necklines were outlined with the braid. They carried smaller bouquets like those of the adult attendants.

Ted Hugh Wright was best man for his brother.

Groomsman were Robert Marvin Byars, Jr., brother of the bride; Thomas Lee Gilbert, Jr. and Joseph Lee Green, brothers-in-law of the bride; Michael Theodore Ledford, cousin of the bride; Roy Ernest Medlin and Richard Morris White.

Miss Margaret Ann Ledford, cousin of the bride, kept the bride's book in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party formed a receiving line to greet wedding guests after the ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a mint green linen dress trimmed in matching green lace with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations. Mrs. J. T. Green, maternal grandmother of the bride, chose light blue with black accessories and a white shoulder corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a robin blue sheer dress with gold trim and matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white carnations.

For a wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga., the new Mrs. Wright wore a brown and white linen coat and dress ensemble with matching accessories and the orchid lifts from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Bob Hullender directed the wedding.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marvin Byars of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. She is a 1963 graduate of Kings Mountain high school and a recent graduate of Appalachian State University at Boone where she majored in English. She will teach in the Ashle Junior high school in September.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest William Wright of Kings Mountain. He is a 1967 graduate of Kings Mountain high school and has completed two years service duty with the Army.

The newlyweds will be at home at 107 North Gaston street.

Out-of-town guests were from Grover, Gastonia, Charlotte, Burnsville, Winston-Salem, Shelby, Ellenboro, Lenoir, Lawson, Mo., Norfolk, Va. and Morganton.

Mrs. Throneburg Back From New York

Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg has returned from New York City after a three week's visit with her son, James Throneburg.

Mrs. Throneburg's grandchildren, Billy and Pattie Throneburg, flew from Salt Lake City, Utah, for a visit with the Throneburgs. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Throneburg.

The Throneburgs did night-seeing in New York and attended a Broadway play.

SOCIETY COLUMN

Jerry David Hall, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry David Hall, of 1340 Second street, celebrated her first birthday Tuesday, June 30th.

A family party was held at the Hall home and Jerry David's cake was cut and served with party refreshments.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hall of Kings Mountain.

Regina Lynette Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Ross, celebrated her first birthday Saturday, June 27th.

A circus carousel cake centered the refreshment table from which party refreshments were served to members of the family and to Debbie Woods, Shane Farris and Wayne Gregory.

Regina is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conner and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ross, all of Kings Mountain.

INVITATIONS ISSUED

Mr. and Mrs. George Blanton, Jr. of Shelby have issued invitations to Kings Mountain friends to attend the wedding reception of their daughter, Lydia Lee, and Charles Rush Hamrick, III, Ensign, United States Naval Reserve, on Saturday, July 18th, at 1 p.m. at Cleveland Country Club in Shelby.

The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Rush Hamrick, Jr. of Shelby.

ABOUT THIS 'N' THAT

Miss Diane Jackson and Tommy Dean were honored after their wedding rehearsal June 19th at an after-rehearsal party given by Mrs. Amos Dean and Miss Jo Ann Dean at the Dean home on West Gold street.

A color note of yellow and white was predominant in decorating and in refreshments of party pick-ups. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with white over yellow and was decorated with valley lilies.

The bride-to-be wore a brown voile pleated skirt with white blouse and accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. L. Arnold Kiser entertained June 20th at noon at a wedding breakfast at the Kiser home honoring Miss Diane Jackson and Tommy Morris Dean.

Members of the immediate families and out-of-town relatives of the bride and bridegroom attended.

Breakfast was served buffet style from a table spread with white appointed with silver candelabrum holding pink and white candles and flowers. Smaller tables held arrangements of white bridal flowers and placecards were silver bells.

The bride-to-be wore a white dress.

Day School Fills Preschool Class, Vacancies Remain

A few vacancies for the fall term remain to be filled in the kindergarten group of the day school of Trinity Episcopal Church. However, the preschool class here is full.

Anyone interested in enrolling a child should contact either Mrs. Tom Burke, pre-school teacher at 39-4011, Mrs. Gordon Myers, kindergarten teacher at 937-7287 or the headmaster, Rev. James A. Nell III at 739-6465. The school graduated 20 preschoolers the past year and promoted 12 kindergartners to preschool level. In other activities, students visited the Charlotte Nature Museum by bus, First Union National Bank, Mauney Library and the William Plonk dairy farm.

Mrs. Jack Cobb is assistant at the school and Mrs. Bill Hawkins is in charge of afternoon care.
