MORE ABOUT DEAN - JACKSON

streamers down the back tied with pink roses. They carried nosegays of dark pink carnations and light pink roses with baby's breath. The bridegroom's brother, Franklin Dean, of Baton Rouge, La., was best man.

Bill Jackson of York, S. C., brother of the bride, and Tony Hammock of Charlotte, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, ushered. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a fuchsia flowing floor-length gown featuring tiny straps designed along Grecian lines. She wore a white orchid at her shoulder.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Jackson of York, S. C., chose a pink dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Kelley of Athens, Ga., chose a blue ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Miss JoAnn Dean, sister of the bridegroom, kept the register. She wore a flowing gown in Edwardian styling of pale green with matching slippers.

The bride's father entertained after the ceremony at a reception in the church parlors.

The wedding theme of pink and white was beautifully carried out in decorative details and in refreshments. Overlaid with white lace over pink, the bride's table held a three-tier pink and white cake as central decoration. Pink punch was served from a silver service at one end of the table. Centering the table was an arrangement of pink and white flowers and candles.

Aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Parks Watson of Richmond, Va., Mrs. Steve Conger of Athens, Ga., Mrs. Silas Todd of Wendell and Mrs. Lindsay Wilkinson of Greenville, assisted in receiving and entertaining.

For a trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. the bride wore a navy blue and white ensemble featuring a blouse and vest with blue braid trim and the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Greenville, North Carolina will be home for the newlyweds.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is the daughter of Dewey H. Jackson of York, S. C. and the late Mrs. Jackson. She is a graduate of West Carteret high school in Morehead City and holds a B.S. degree in speech and hearing from East Carolina University at Greenville where she was a dean's list student. She holds a graduate fellowship to do gradu-

Pair Feted After Rehearsal Friday Night

Miss Dale Byars and Phillip Wright were honored after their wedding rehearsal Friday at a cake cutting given by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ledford, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gilbert, in the Fellowship Hall of Central United Methodist church. Guests greeted by Rev. and Mrs. Dale Thornburg of Lenoir, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Traditional bridal colors of pink and white were used.

The table was covered with a floor-length pink net over taffeta cloth. Central arrangement was 5-branch candelabra with pink candles and shasta daisies, pink and white carnations. At one end of the table was punch bowl and punch was served by Mrs. Joseph Green. At the opposite end of the table was the three-tier wedding cake topped with bridal figurine. Nuts and mints were served. After the couple had cut their wedding cake, it was sliced and served by Mrs. Michael Ledford and Mrs. Thomas Gilbert.

The bride-to-be wore a blue lace sleeveless coat over a matching blue crepe dress with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

Mr. Falls Renews Swiss Friendship

Butler Falls of Waco Rd. was entertained at the home of Pierre Dassin in Switzerland when Mr. Falls visited that country on a tour of Eastern Europe and the Middle East. Mr. Dassin, an exchange student who lived at the Fred Plonk home here, is presently in Australia but expects to visit Kings Mountain in January when he returns to the U. S. Mr. Falls reports.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Amos Franklin Dean of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Dean. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and holds an A.B. degree in history from East Carolina University where he was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He will teach history in the Greenville school system in the fall. The newlyweds moved Friday to their new home in Greenville.

Bride-Elect Feted Saturday At Luncheon

Miss Andrea Huffstetler, bride-elect, was honored Saturday at a 1 p.m. bridesmaids luncheon given by Mrs. Don Martin and her daughter, Miss Ann Martin, in Gastonia.

In addition to the bride-elect and hostesses, other guests were the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Andy Huffstetler; Mrs. Dan O'Shields, Miss Susan Owens and Mrs. Ronnie Rumpfelt.

The bride-to-be wore a pink linen party dress and was given a corsage of white daisies. She took the occasion to present her gifts to her bridal attendants.

A color note of yellow and white was featured in decorative details. Fruit plates with ham biscuits, toasted cheese open face sandwiches, punch and chocolate roll were served with tea.

Mixed flowers were used in the living room and dining room.

Post Rehearsal Party In Gastonia

A post rehearsal party was given for Andrea Huffstetler and Ronnie Beason by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Huffstetler.

The church parlor of Maylo Methodist Church on Spencer Mountain Road, Gastonia was decorated with an arrangement of pink garza mums and pink snapdragons and a candelabrum containing pink candles. The table holding the 5 tiered pink rose decorated cake was covered with a pink linen and lace cloth caught up at the corners with pink streamers.

Mrs. J. E. Mauney, assisted by Mrs. Plato Heavner, cut and served the wedding cake, which was topped with bride and groom figurines.

Pink punch was served from a silver punch bowl by Mrs. Sammy Crawford and Mrs. Rocky Morris. The hostesses presented the bride-to-be a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

Ford. Mints, nuts, and cheese straws were also served. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Emmett Ross and Mrs. Raymond Deal. Sixty guests attended. The honoree wore a green linen dress with white carnation corsage.
