

Mrs. Mayes Hosts KM Women Golfers

Mrs. Carl Mayes, local golfer, scored her second hole-in-one on the ninth hole of the Blowing Rock Golf Course in early October.

The Kings Mountain woman was hostess to Kings Mountain members of the Foothills League of Women Golfers for a weekend of golf at Blowing Rock in mid-September. Mr. and Mrs. Mayes have returned to their Kings Mountain home after spending the summer in Blowing Rock.

Kings Mountain women spending the weekend with the Mayeses were Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Hoyle McDaniel, Mrs. Henry Neisler, Mrs. Russell Putnam, Mrs. Charles Mauney and Mrs. Matt Pouchak.

Shelby women golfers will be hostess group to the October 22nd golf tournament of the Foothill League, at Cleveland Country Club.

MRS. PRESSLY

The Kings Mountain Garden Club met on Wednesday with Mrs. John L. McGill. Small tables were set up on her patio and were appropriately decorated with fresh fruits and pumpkins.

After a sweet course was served and a short business session conducted, Mrs. McGill introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. W. L. Pressly of Mooresville, former member of the club, who gave a talk and illustration on making various arrangements.

allowing this the members made arrangements in their own containers while Mrs. Pressly gave assistance where needed.

Two "Indian Summer" arrangements were brought by Mrs. Carl F. Mauney and Mrs. Frank Sincos, each representing her club team which competes throughout the year for "points".

This year's club officers are: Mrs. Larry Hamrick, president; Mrs. J. E. Herndon, vice-president; Mrs. Milton Fryer, secretary-treasurer.

Bryant Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Toney Wells, celebrated his second birthday Sunday at a family party for 35 friends and relatives at his home at 208 Maner road.

A decorated birthday cake, topped with Halloween decorations and Indians, centered the refreshment table.

Out-of-town guests present included Bryant's aunts and uncles: Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Kincaid, Rhonda Kay, Kent, and Brent Kincaid of Mount Gilead and Mr. and Mrs. Tonnie Ware of Charlotte.

Grandparents of Bryant are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ware, all of Kings Mountain. Bryant's great-grandmother is Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

Vonda Diane Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Foster, celebrated her sixth birthday Wednesday, October 14.

A birthday party was held at the Foster home Saturday, October 10. A large cake topped with "Cinderella and her golden Coach" was cut and served with party refreshments.

Party guests were Kim and Kelly Griffin of Gastonia, Audie and Jeff Duncan, and Gene and Gina, Tony Holmes, Sonya and Lycia Price. Grandparents are Mrs. Josephine McAbee and the late Russell McAbee, and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Foster, all of Kings Mountain.

ABOUT THIS 'N' THAT

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McComas of Washington, Pennsylvania, have issued wedding invitations to Cleveland County friends and relatives to attend the Sunday wedding of their daughter, Miss Sandra Sue McComas, and James Conway Jolly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jolly of Shelby.

The prospective bridegroom is grandson of Mrs. C. J. Gault, Sr. of Kings Mountain.

The wedding will take place at 4:30 p.m. in Avery United Methodist church on McJay Drive at Gabby

(Society Column Continued on Page Two)

MISS LINDA FAYE WEAVER
(Bride-Elect of Eric Thomas Redmond)

MISS WANDA SUE PAYNE
(Bride-Elect of Charles Lawrence)

Two Couples Set Their Wedding Dates

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ervin Weaver of Gastonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Faye, to Eric Thomas Redmond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Redmond of Kings Mountain.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Hunter Huss high school where she was active in the Anchor club.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is employed by Carolina Throwing Company.

The wedding will be an event of December 5th in Victory Baptist church with the Rev. Robert Grigg officiating.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Payne of Gastonia, formerly of Kings Mountain, announce the engagement of their daughter, Wanda Sue, to Charles Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mayford C. Lawrence of Bessemer City.

The bride-elect graduated from Hunter Huss high school, has attended Gardner Webb college and is now a sophomore student at Gaston college. She is employed by Goodwill Publishers of Gastonia.

The prospective bridegroom graduated from Bessemer City high school, has completed his tour of duty in the United States Army and is employed by Akers Motor Lines in Charlotte. He is also attending Gaston college.

The wedding will be an event of November 29th.

Teresa Short, Ronald Stacey Give Plans

Miss Teresa Luella Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Short, has completed plans for her marriage to Ronald Raymond Stacey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stacey, of Shelby, and announces them today.

The wedding will take place Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. in Second Baptist church with the Rev. Eugene Land, minister of the church, to officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

Wayne Bowers will be organist for the program of nuptial music and Mrs. Evelyn Chambers will be vocalist.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father. Best man for the prospective bridegroom will be his father.

Mrs. C. B. Greene will attend her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids will include Miss Barbara Plonk and Miss Kay Kimball, both of Kings Mountain; Miss Susan Biddy of Gastonia; and Miss Shirley McCarter of Clover, S. C. Junior bridesmaid will be Miss Lisa Stacey, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, and flower girl will be Miss Paula Greene, niece of the bride-elect.

Jimmy Barrett will serve as ringbearer.

Ushers will include C. B. Greene brother-in-law of the bride-elect; Jim Blanton of Shelby, Don Stacey, brother of the bridegroom-to-be; Jim Whitaker of Lawndale and Ken Pruitt of Rock Hill, S. C.

Mrs. Karen Moss will keep a guest register in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party will form a receiving line to greet wedding guests after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McGinnis will honor Miss Short and Mr. Stacey at a cake-cutting after the couple's wedding rehearsal Saturday night. The party will be held at 9 p.m. at the McGinnis home on Hawthorne Lane.

Kings Mountain Mayor John Henry Moss extended greetings and Mrs. W. T. Weir, Senior Woman's club president, welcomed the group. Addresses by the state president of NCFW, Mrs. Paul Keller of Smithfield, and the state third vice-president and Junior director Mrs. James Dean White of High Point, formerly of Gastonia, highlighted the meeting. Minute capsule reports from all the Junior and senior clubs represented were given and reported numerous and varied activities of the district clubwomen during the year.

The NCFW theme for the next two years was carried out in decoration, along with a patriotic theme noting the 190th anniversary October 7th of the Revolutionary War Battle of Kings Mountain. A white basket of red roses centered the speaker's table in the dining room of the clubhouse. Five white doves were used on the table with a white dove on each end and red, white and blue streamers extending the length of the table and connecting the central arrangement.

On the white streamer was imprinted in gold, "Make peace With Nature, Restore Quality to Life." Other luncheon tables were decorated in red, white and blue streamers with tiny dolls in red coats and white trousers representing the British soldiers and tiny dolls dressed as the colonial forces at Kings Mountain. Monument replicas were also used in table decorations along with white dahlias and red flowers.

The auditorium was decorated with arrangements of magnolia leaves and in the foyer were pink roses in a silver wine cooler, Camellias, locally grown by Mrs. J. E. Herndon, Sr., were presented in corsages to the state officers and district president and gifts were presented to the state officers from the local club. Door prizes, donated by local merchants, were distributed.

Cleveland County members of the "Good News Singers of America" presented a musical program after luncheon. Van Ramsey, conductor, who led the large group of young people on a trip to the Soviet Union recently, spoke briefly. Mrs. Ramsey sang a new tune to "The Clubwoman Hymn", the melody written by an 80-year-old active clubwoman.

Members of the Kings Mountain chapter, announced.

Mrs. Scism said workshops have been held at the home of Mrs. Janie Kincaid to get ready for the bazaar.

Proceeds from the bazaar will help finance a new Care Center at Masonic Home in Greensboro.

Neislers Note Golden Wedding Day At Surprise Family Party Tuesday Night

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Neisler, Sr. were honored on their Golden Wedding Day Tuesday at a surprise dinner party planned by their three sons and daughters-in-law and held at Gaston Country club.

Fifty family members and friends attended the party.

Members of the Neisler family, hosts for the occasion, were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neisler, Jr., their three sons and daughter: Paul Neisler, III and Mrs. Neisler and son, Paul IV, of Shelby; John Alexander Neisler, Charles Henry Neisler, and Kathryn Elizabeth Neisler; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neisler and sons, Henry Parks, Jr. and David and Hayne Neisler; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neisler and sons, Charles Andrew, Jr., George Scott Neisler and Lee Somers Neisler, all of Kings Mountain.

There are nine grandsons, one granddaughter and one great grandson, all of whom were present for the party.

Mrs. Neisler, the honoree, is the former Kathryn Moss. She said the party was "a complete and delightful surprise for both of us." Mr. Neisler is also a Kings Mountain native and retired Kings Mountain industrialist.

The golden wedding theme was beautifully carried out in decorative details. At the head table of the U-shaped tables was a tall, five-tier wedding cake iced in gold and white. Gold and white flowers and gold tapers were featured in appointments.

Mrs. Edgar Sellers Is Hospitalized

Mrs. Edgar Sellers of Concord, well known to a large number of Kings Mountain citizens, suffered a stroke Monday and is a patient in Room F213 of Calvarius Memorial hospital, Concord.

Mrs. Sellers, 72, drove to Kings Mountain last weekend for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owens and was a dinner guest with other family members, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ramsey of Gastonia and Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Lynch of Kings Mountain, at the Lynch home Sunday.

Cathy Carroll Kenneth Bridges Give Plans

Miss Cathy Louella Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Carroll, Sr., has completed plans for her marriage to Kenneth Ray Bridges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby R. Bridges, and announces them this week.

The wedding will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. in Eastside Baptist church with the Rev. Donald Horn of Smithfield, cousin of the bridegroom-to-be, Rev. Harry Vance, minister of the church, to officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Evelyn Chambers will be organist for the program of nuptial music and Mrs. Carl Mangum of Wilson will be vocalist.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father. Best man for the bridegroom-to-be will be his father.

Miss Dorothy Sue Carroll will attend her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Miss Kimberly Bridges, sister of the bridegroom-to-be; Mrs. Tommy King, Mrs. Charles Ross and Mrs. Keith Hullender.

Flower girl will be Miss Jill Guyton.

Ushers will include Arthur Allen Carroll, brother of the bride-elect; David Wayne Bridges, brother of the bridegroom-to-be; Michael Edward Kiser and Charles Steven Wilson.

Mrs. Nelson Carroll will keep a guest register in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party will receive wedding guests after the ceremony.

After their wedding rehearsal Saturday night Miss Carroll and Mr. Bridges will be honored at a cake-cutting in the fellowship hall of Piedmont Baptist church. Hosts will be the bride-elect's parents.

Senior Citizens Club Of 45 Members Brave Rain For Trip To The Mountains

In spite of the rain, members of the Senior Citizens club took a bus trip to the mountains Tuesday to view the fall color.

Fall color is at its peak now and should be good in the North Carolina mountains for the next 10 days. The best color will be seen at the medium and dlower elevations as the end of the month approaches.

The Kings Mountain group took a chartered bus to Brevard,

Gaddys And Morrrows Cop Top Prizes In Dance Competition At Supper Club

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gaddy copped the prize for best dancers in "fast dancing" category and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morrow were adjudged first place winners in the "slow dancing" category in dance competition Saturday night at the Kings Mountain Supper club.

Manager Grayson Brown said dancing competition is continuing each Saturday evening with handsome, engraved trophies to go to the top winners after the 12-week contest is completed. All first place winners will compete again in the final round of competition for the grand prize.

Ray Barrett and Carl Cash with "The Expressions" will play for the Saturday night dance from 9 p.m. until 3 a.m. Friday's dance will be held from 9 p.m. until 3 a.m.

Thurman Moss To Undergo Surgery

Thurman Moss, resident of the Mangrove community, will undergo surgery Friday morning in Gaston Memorial hospital.

Mr. Moss is a patient in Room 64-D, Third Floor.

Society News

Thursday, October 22, 1970 KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. SECTION I

Woman's Club Is Honor Club

Kings Mountain Woman's club received an honor club certificate, among clubs cited for accomplishment during 1969-70 at last Thursday's District IV meeting of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs at the Woman's club here.

Kings Mountain's two women's clubs, the Senior and Junior Women's clubs, were hostesses for the meeting which included luncheon. A total of 86 women from a four-county area attended.

Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch of Kings Mountain, district president, presided. Rev. Frank Shirley, pastor of Temple Baptist church, gave the devotional, using the NCFW administration theme for the next two years, "Make Peace With Nature, Restore Quality to Life."

Kings Mountain Mayor John Henry Moss extended greetings and Mrs. W. T. Weir, Senior Woman's club president, welcomed the group. Addresses by the state president of NCFW, Mrs. Paul Keller of Smithfield, and the state third vice-president and Junior director Mrs. James Dean White of High Point, formerly of Gastonia, highlighted the meeting. Minute capsule reports from all the Junior and senior clubs represented were given and reported numerous and varied activities of the district clubwomen during the year.

The NCFW theme for the next two years was carried out in decoration, along with a patriotic theme noting the 190th anniversary October 7th of the Revolutionary War Battle of Kings Mountain. A white basket of red roses centered the speaker's table in the dining room of the clubhouse. Five white doves were used on the table with a white dove on each end and red, white and blue streamers extending the length of the table and connecting the central arrangement.

On the white streamer was imprinted in gold, "Make peace With Nature, Restore Quality to Life." Other luncheon tables were decorated in red, white and blue streamers with tiny dolls in red coats and white trousers representing the British soldiers and tiny dolls dressed as the colonial forces at Kings Mountain. Monument replicas were also used in table decorations along with white dahlias and red flowers.

The auditorium was decorated with arrangements of magnolia leaves and in the foyer were pink roses in a silver wine cooler, Camellias, locally grown by Mrs. J. E. Herndon, Sr., were presented in corsages to the state officers and district president and gifts were presented to the state officers from the local club. Door prizes, donated by local merchants, were distributed.

Cleveland County members of the "Good News Singers of America" presented a musical program after luncheon. Van Ramsey, conductor, who led the large group of young people on a trip to the Soviet Union recently, spoke briefly. Mrs. Ramsey sang a new tune to "The Clubwoman Hymn", the melody written by an 80-year-old active clubwoman.

Members of the Kings Mountain chapter, announced.

Mrs. Scism said workshops have been held at the home of Mrs. Janie Kincaid to get ready for the bazaar.

Proceeds from the bazaar will help finance a new Care Center at Masonic Home in Greensboro.

Mrs. Nelson Carroll will keep a guest register in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party will receive wedding guests after the ceremony.

Local FHA's To Rally

Pfeiffer College will be buzzing on October 21! There will be 1150 Future Homemakers of America from Anson, Cabarrus, Catawba, Gaston, Lincoln, Mecklenburg, Cleveland, Stanly, and Union Counties gathering for the annual District VI rally. There are 339 members from 51 chapters represented. The theme for the rally is "Making Decisions Through Communications".

Both sessions will be filled with take home ideas presented in exhibits and skits and featuring an outstanding speaker, Dr. Mellicent Huneycutt, a missionary who has served in Korea. Another feature will be Encounter Session—"Teen Thought and Talk."

One of the highlights of the meeting will be the election of the 1971-72 state FHA Reporter who will represent District VI, both on the State Executive Council and as a delegate to the National Convention next summer.

Miss Jan Dayvaunt, State FHA Parliamentarian from Olympic High School, will preside during the day. She attended the National FHA Convention in New York City in July.

"The youth delegates plan and conduct their own district meeting, sharing the responsibilities of various presentations," says Mrs. Becky B. McCormick, District VI FHA adviser.

Kings Mountain High will manage publicity at the all day session.

Members of the Kings Mountain chapter, announced.

Mrs. Scism said workshops have been held at the home of Mrs. Janie Kincaid to get ready for the bazaar.

Proceeds from the bazaar will help finance a new Care Center at Masonic Home in Greensboro.

Mrs. Nelson Carroll will keep a guest register in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party will receive wedding guests after the ceremony.

After their wedding rehearsal Saturday night Miss Carroll and Mr. Bridges will be honored at a cake-cutting in the fellowship hall of Piedmont Baptist church. Hosts will be the bride-elect's parents.

Members of the Kings Mountain chapter, announced.

Mrs. Scism said workshops have been held at the home of Mrs. Janie Kincaid to get ready for the bazaar.

Proceeds from the bazaar will help finance a new Care Center at Masonic Home in Greensboro.

MRS. HAYWOOD E. LYNCH
... District IV President