Curtis Turner To Be Inducted Into Race 'Hall'

Curtis Turner, called the Babe Ruth of modern day stock car racing, will be inducted into the National Motorsport Press As-sociation Hall of Fame Saturday night, Sept. 4.

Turner, who was fatally injured in a plane crash last October, after one of the most color-ful careers racing has witnessed, was a unanimous choice by the members of the NMPA.

Barred from NASCAR in 1961 for allegely attempting to organ-ize race drivers for the Teamsters Union, Turner came roar-ing back in1964 to win an ARCA 250-mile race at Charlotte. Once reinstated in NASCAR, Turner proved he wasn't over the hill by winning the American 500 at er in a Petty Dodge and Pete North Carolina Motor Speedway. The 36-year-old veteran from Catawba, N. C., admits that he can't resist the opportunity to realize his life-long dream of winning the Southern 500, old-est and most prestigious of NASCAR's superspeedway races. Isaac nearly had the cherished victory in his grasp last year before an untimely accident involving other cars gave a pit-stop advantage to Buddy Baker, who proceeded to victory.

"I thought I had finally beater this tough old track." said Isaac. who has often said that he would rather race anywhere else, but would rather win at Darlington. "It was one of the breaks of racing that I stopped under the racing that I stopped under the green flag and Buddy got a cau-tion flag. But I still intend to the Kings Mountain Junior Po-
