Well-Loved Carols Ring Out Everywhere In Christmas Season

"Joy to the world! The Lord is come!"

"It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old."

"Silent night, holy night, All is calm, all is bright."

"Oh come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant."

Throughout Christendom, the words of these well-loved carols are familiar even to little children, and they'll be heard this Christmas wherever carolers get together.

"Joy to the World" was written by Isaac Watts (1674-1748), English hymnist.

Watts, who is known as the creator of the modern hymn, wrote nearly 600 hymns. Many of these still appear in Protestant hymnals, says the Encyclopedia Americana.

"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" is the work of Edmund H. Sears, a Unitarian minister in Massachusetts, more than a century ago.

Perhaps the most famous of Christmas carols, "Silent Night" was first sung on Christmas Eve, 1818, to guitar music.

Mice in the bellows had silenced the organ of a tiny Austrian church. Father Joseph Mohr met the challenge by writing "Silent Night." His organist composed a melody for guitar.

Father Mohr's inspiration—aside from the mice—was the vast, still beauty of the snowy mountains around the village.

"Oh come, all ye faithful" is translated from the Latin, "Adeste Fidelis," and its exact beginning are shrouded in the mists of time.

Historians say it may have been written by Saint Bonaventura, in the 13th century.

Come, Follow Me

Long ago three Wise Men
 Were gazing at a star
 That glistened in the Heavens,
 Outshining all by far.

And so the Wise Men pondered
 What could its message be,
 For it somehow seemed to beckon
 And say, "Come, follow me!"

So they readied for a journey,
 And chose their gifts so rare.
 Then they climbed upon their camels,
 And turned them toward the star.

Long days and nights they traveled
 With trials along the way,
 Until they came to Bethlehem
 Where now the Christ Child lay.

And there the holy Magi
 Kneled before this tiny King;
 They gazed in adoration
 While hearing angels sing.

And then along with shepherds
 They learned the reason why
 They were beckoned by a message
 That came out of the sky.

And they gave it to the ages
 So that all good men might be,
 Just as joyfully rewarded
 By the words, "Come, follow me!"
