three in a row since losing to South Point of Belmont in their first conference game. Prior to that, Coach Elaine Proneberger's girls won a pair of non-conference bouts with 2-A Bessemer City.

The two Kings Mountain squads will have another tough fight on their hands Tuesday night when they journey to Cherryville to take on another pair of conference contenders.

The Cherryville girls are off to their best start in several seasons, sporting a perfect 6-0 record and sharing first place in the SWC standings with South Point. The Cherryville lassies handed the Mountaineers a pair of defeats last year.

The Cherryville boys, playing under new coach Jim Ramsey, are 2-2 in conference play, having dropped their last two games to Shelby and Crest. But the Ironmen, who whipped KM twice last year, are always tough on the Mountaineers, especially on their home court at Nixon gym.
