Yungs Are Wed In Baptist Ceremony; Three Couples Give Plans For Summer Weddings

Miss Mary Kathryn Willis became the bride of Willie Kai Yung Sunday afternoon in a 3 p. n. wedding in Kings Mountain Baptist church.

The couple pledged their vows in a double-ring ceremony before the Rev. James M. Wilder, minister of the church, and Rev. Robert L. Poindexter, pastor of Center United Methodist church of Catawba.

Mrs. J. C. Bridges was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Miss Gay Jolley.

The altar of the church was flanked with palms and ferns and centered with branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers and flanked by a tall basket of white chrysanthemums. Two candle trees holding lighted tapers enhanced the setting. The couple knelt for the benediction on a white wrought-iron prie dieu. White silk-tassled roping with lace trimmed satin bows marked the family pews.

James K. Willis, Jr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white peau d'orange and a conical lace featuring a portrait neckline with bell sleeves enhanced by seed pearls. Lace and pearl applique trimmed the A-line skirt, and the lace train, which included the bride and bridegroom and members of their wedding party. Mrs. J. B. Keeter and Mrs. Harold Crawford presided at the punch service and assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. George B. Ford, Mrs. Bryon Ford, Mrs. O. O. Walker and Mrs. C. E. Oxford.

For a trip to Atlanta, Ga. the bride chose a pink wool suit with brown accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Robert Morrison, grandmother of the bride chose navy and white with a white carnation shoulder corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Manning, of Gastonia, were "stand-in" parents for the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Yung of Hong Kong, China. The Yungs, unable to come to America, cabled their congratulations.

Mrs. Robert Hullender directed the wedding.

The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. J. K. Willis Sr., entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception in the church fellowship hall.

Overlaid with yellow satin and tulle, the bride's table was highlighted with decoration and was garlanded with mums tied with yellow streamers. At the center of the table was a silver branched candelabra of yellow tapers and yellow and white mums. Yellow punch was served from a silver punch service at one end of the table. Silver compotes held an assortment of fancy sandwiches, nuts and mints.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Marion Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Franklin greeted guests and Mrs. Jack White introduced the receiving line which included the bride and bridegroom and members of their wedding party. Mrs. J. B. Keeter and Mrs. Harold Crawford presided at the punch service and assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. George B. Ford, Mrs. Bryon Ford, Mrs. O. O. Walker and Mrs. C. E. Oxford.
