Parents Discriminated Against Ingram Says Youth Insurance Too High

State Representative John Ingram, Democratic Candidate for Insurance Commissioner, in an address to a Charlotte civic club said, "automobile liability insurance costs are too high and are discriminatory — particularly against youth."

Ingram says it is time for a change in the Automobile Insurance Industry which charges a youth with a perfect driving record a much higher premium than one over 25 who has been convicted of drunk driving. "A person's driving record, not his age, should be the criteria," Ingram added. Representative Ingram said, "Parents are fed up with paying more for their perfect driving son than a person convicted of drunk driving."

Ingram also criticized discrimination against older drivers who are placed in the Assigned Risk Pool with perfect driving records. Sixty-five per cent of the people in Assigned Risk have safe driving records.

Representative Ingram is the only Candidate not connected with the insurance industry. As Insurance Commissioner, he will abolish the discriminatory Assigned Risk Pool and replace it with a better fair insurance plan—no drunk driver will drive cheaper than a safe driving youth or anyone else—each person will be rated on his individual driving record—he will reduce substantially the cost of car insurance for every safe driver in North Carolina.
