

A's Win Couple

Kings Mountain's A's, winners of two Triple County League games over the past weekend, are at home for a pair this Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday at 3:30 p. m., the A's entertain the Charlotte Red Birds at Davidson Park with southpaw John McGill, or righthander Darrell Whetstone scheduled to pitch.

Sunday at 3:30 p. m., the A's will host the Charlotte Astros. Robert Adams is the scheduled hurler.

Last week, the A's got good pitching from Richard Gillespie and Whetstone to hold onto their second place standing in the Northern Division.

Gillespie pitched a four-hitter in Saturday's 4-2 victory over the Biscoe Chargers. Charlie Rhodes led the KM hitting with two hits and Wayne Ridges and Danny McDowell added a hit apiece.

Whetstone tossed a five-hitter Sunday to beat the Westside Eagles 13-8. Clarence Ash had a double and home run, Bridges had two hits and McDowell and Thomas McNeal one apiece.

State Softball Events Slated For Saturday

Kings Mountain will host the three ASA state slowpitch softball tournaments this weekend.

Action begins at 10 a. m. and will continue into the night.

The 9-12 year old tourney will be played at the two Deal Street little league fields. Henderson County One meets Kings Mountain and Henderson County Two takes on Pharr Yarns in opening round games. The championship game is set for 2:30 p. m.

Bubbles Pearson and Leonard Smith are coaching the local entries.

The 13-15 year old tourney begins at 10 a. m. at the Deal Street softball field and will continue through the 3 p. m. title game.

Henderson County meets East Gaston Boys Club in the opening game and Kings Mountain will meet the winner at 11 a. m. Max Brooks and Chuck Boheler are coaching the KM team.

The 16-18 year old tourney begins at 10 a. m. at City Stadium and the championship game is set for 6 p. m. at the Deal Street field.

Kings Mountain plays Yadkin County Two at 10 a. m. and Yadkin County One meets Dallas at 11 a. m.

KMCC Member-Guest

Set For This Weekend

The sixth annual Kings Mountain Country Club member-guest golf tournament is set for Saturday and Sunday over the 18-hole KMCC layout.

The tourney is a 36-hole, medal play event. Sunday's final round flights will be determined by Saturday's scores.

Prizes will be awarded to the first, second and third place finishers in each flight.

Kings Mountain's John Howze and Shelby's Ronnie Stroupe are pre-tournament favorites. They're the defending champions and have won the event every year except 1974, when KM's Mickey Powers and Fayetteville's Ray Adams took the honors.
