4-H Delegates In Raleigh

A delegation of ten 4-H members and one adult leader are representing Cleveland County at North Carolina 4-H Congress in Raleigh this week.

The Cleveland County delegates are among 1,200 4-H members, leaders and Extension Agents participating in the annual four-day program. The Congress began Monday with registration on the North Carolina State University campus where delegates will reside. Most activities are scheduled for the W. Kerr Scott Building at the State Fairgrounds. The program consists of recreation, discussions, competition, election of State officers and a lot of fellowship.

"North Carolina 4-H Congress offers an excellent opportunity for personal growth and development," comments Dr. Donald Stormer, State

4-H leader. "It is an event that 4-H'ers look forward to each year with great anticipation."

During the week state winners are determined in some 35 demonstration programs and various judging activities.

Two Cleveland County 4-H'ers are competing in State demonstration finals; Lorna Withrow, Junior Egg Cookery, and Cassandra Propst Landscaping. Jeff Cooper will appear in the State Talent Fashion Revue.

A Horticulture Judging team consisting of Janet Hart, Jeff Prescott and Eric Withrow will compete for honors in this event. Chuck Keller is a candidate for the office of State 4-H Reporter.

Other Cleveland County 4-H'ers who are attending are Bobby Pryor, Tony Smith, Debbie Wells, and Bink Ferchaud.
