MARK ALLEN JOHNSON

Funeral services for Mark Allen Johnson, 15, of Rt. 2, Ellenboro, Kings Mountain native, were conducted Monday at 3 p. m. from Bingham Baptist Church, interment following in Bessemer City Memorial Cemetery.

Rev. Ray England and Rev. George Thompson officiated.

Captain C. M. Grant, detective with the Rowan County Sheriff's Department, said the boy was killed at his father's trailer three miles south of Salisbury Friday about 2:15 p. m. by a 16-gauge shotgun blast to his head from close range and that coroner's inquest has been ordered in the shooting death. Grant said no charges have been made but that it is appeared from his initial investigation to have been an accidental shooting. Capt. Grant said that Johnson's brother, Johnny William Johnson, age 14, had apparently been playing with a shotgun in the trailer, pointing it out the window, when he apparently dropped it and it went off.

Surviving are the parents, William and Carol Toney Johnson; two brothers, Kim Johnson of Bowling Springs and Johnny Johnson of the home; one sister, Mrs. Robert Alexander of Cherryville; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Toney of Kings Mountain; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Melrose Johnson of Bessemer City; and maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Propst of Forest City.
