

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE WRIGHT
... note silver wedding anniversary

The Clarence Wrights Feted On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wright celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary Saturday evening at a drop-in party hosted by their four daughters at the home of Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Leroy Whitworth and Mr. Whitworth, on Rt. 1, Grover.

Fifty friends and relatives called between the hours of 7 and 9 p. m. Receiving with the Wrights were their daughters, Mrs. Connie Lovelace, Miss Kay Wright, Mrs. Robbie Moore and Miss Gail Wright.

Their son-in-law, Robbie Moore, and grandson,

Brad Lovelace, also assisted in receiving and entertaining.

Overlaid with silver cloth, the refreshment table was highlight of decoration and held the Kiwanians

Hold Dinner

Kings Mountain Kiwanians held their Thanksgiving dinner Tuesday evening at the Woman's Club and Rev. Clyde Bearden, pastor of First Baptist Church, led the Thanksgiving devotional.

tiered anniversary cake topped with silver 25, silver bells and silver leaves as decorative highlight. A silver punch bowl at one end of the table held punch and silver trays held sausage balls, cheese biscuits, mints and finger sandwiches. An arrangement of yellow roses and yellow carnations centered the table.

Betty Bowen and Clarence Wright, both natives of Grover, were married Nov. 17, 1951. Mr. Wright is a truck driver for Best Bakery in Shelby and Mrs. Wright is employed by Superior Feed and Egg Co. of Shelby.

Christmas Hints Are Offered

"Christmas Holiday Hints" will be conducted by the Home Economics Extension Service at the County Office Building on Tues., Nov. 30 and Thurs., Dec. 9. The programs will be co-sponsored by the Extension Service and Mrs. Betty Gilbert, Home Service Advisor with Duke Power Company.

The first session on Nov. 30 will be an Open-House from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. and from 7 p. m. to 8 p. m. Christmas decorations and gift ideas will be on display. Any questions that you might have will be answered and you will be given instructions for making the items.

The second program on Dec. 9 at 7 p. m. will be on "Holiday Foods."

The programs are free and open to the public.

MISS PEELE
DIES

Miss Marie Lineberger, retired Kings Mountain teacher now living in Mount Holly, writes that a co-worker, Miss Katherine

Peele, who taught first Mountain school system for 25-30 years, died Friday after being in a coma for five years.

Funeral services for Miss Peele were held Sunday, Nov. 14, in Gibson, N. C.

FREE TURKEY DINNER

Employees of Kings Mountain Knit Fabrics and their families were treated to Thanksgiving turkey, compliments of their "bosses" and also took the day off "with pay," said a spokesman for Kings Mountain Knit.
