

KMers Return From Tour Of Soviet Union

Ed and Elizabeth Smith, Virginia (Mrs. J. E.) Herndon, all of Kings Mountain, and Elizabeth (Mrs. W. L.) Pressly of Mooresville, formerly of Kings Mountain, have returned from a tour of the Soviet Union.

Mr. Smith, who writes a column for the Mirror-Herald, is expected to share some of his impressions of Russia with our readers in forthcoming editions of the newspaper.

Mrs. Pressly's husband is a former minister of Boyce Memorial ARP Church.

Also joining the Gardner-Webb College touring group to Russia is Mary Sue (Mrs. B. M.) Jarrett of Shelby.

Lib Stewart

and her younger sister, Gay Caveny, is president of the Junior 4-H Club.

Verlee Mask is reminding Kings Mountain area citizens of big plans for a Christmas party for the 185 foster children in Cleveland County to be held at KM Community Center Saturday, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p. m.

According to Verlee, the party will be the biggest ever held for area foster children and sponsored by the County Foster Parents Association.

Santa Claus will distribute presents to all and the Senior Citizens Club will entertain after a banquet of good food and fellowship.

Verlee says that citizens who wish to contribute gifts for the children or donations to help provide the food and toys to contact her at the Community Center.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Lois and Howard Blanton and their two children, Lori and Tim, of Durham, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Blanton and Mrs. Ruth Gamble.

The Blanton family and Barbara and Garth Hawkins of Charlotte and Mr. Hawkins' mother were dinner guests Thursday of Mrs. Gamble, mother of Mrs. Blanton and Mrs. Hawkins.

HOLIDAY FASHION SHOW

Tickets are on sale at $3 each from Cleveland Tech Merchandising students and can also be obtained at the door tonight (Tuesday) for a Holiday Fashion Extravaganza to be staged at 8 p. m. at Malcolm E. Brown Civic Auditorium at Shelby High School.

Cleveland Tech students are sponsoring the show which will present the latest in fall fashions.

Sandra Daniels is directing the fashion show.

WHO'S WHO

Four Kings Mountain young women are being listed in the winter edition of "Women Honor Graduates of American High Schools, Southeastern States."

They include recent graduates Patricia A. Cash, Elizabeth A. Eaker, Barbara Anne Lewis and Debbie Homesley.

Criteria for accepting biographies for this book includes a B-plus grade point average, membership in a national scholastic honor society and recognition by high school officials as having been an honor student.

Club leaders are Frances (Mrs. Otis) Greene, Annie Mae (Mrs. Tom) Berry, Shirley (Mrs. Marvin) Caveny and Leona (Mrs. Wayne) Wells.

Donna Caveny is president of the Senior 4-H Club

Miss Hord Honored At Friday Luncheon

Miss Denise Hord, whose wedding to Kenneth Falls took place Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in Oak View Baptist Church, was honored Friday at noon at a bridesmaids luncheon hosted by Mrs. Ruth Lynn and Mrs. Dorothy Sutton at the former's home on Grover Rd.

Luncheon was served buffet style. The 10 guests found their places at the long dining room table which was overlaid with white cutwork and decorated in the gold and white theme of the wedding. A bride doll and an arrangement of gold and white mums was central decoration.

Miss Hord, who wore a beige and brown party dress, was given a shoulder bouquet of white daisies from the hostesses and a wedding gift.

The bride-to-be took the occasion to present gifts to members of her bridal party.

Guests, other than the honoree and hostesses, were the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Paul Hord, Jr.; her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Otis Falls, Jr.; Mrs. Gerald Valentine, Miss Anne Rowell, Miss Kim Hord, Miss Elizabeth Eaker, Mrs. Judy Belt and Miss Derice Stroupe.
