

Vickie Maddox, Steve Chriscoe Exchange Vows Saturday

Shiloh Presbyterian Church at Grover was the setting Saturday evening for a 7 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Vickie Kay Maddox and Steve Donovan Chriscoe.

Rev. Edwin A. Chriscoe, father of the bridegroom, officiated at the double-ring ceremony, assisted by Dr. Olin Whitener, minister of the church.

Mrs. Jack Lall was organist for the program of traditional music and vocal numbers were by Allen Connor. Mr. Connor sang "Wedding Song" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple lighted a Unity candle on the altar.

White candles and magnolia leaves enhanced the windows of the sanctuary. Six seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral candles and arranged with magnolias, fresh white mums, glads and greenery decorated the altar. Two three-branch candelabra were on either side of the setting which was highlighted by a Christmas tree decorated with white Chrismsons, the Christian symbols of Christmas.

Earl Maddox escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was an Original design created of silk organza and imported Venise lace posed over fallie taffeta. The empire bodice was styled with sheer yoke and keyhole neckline outlined with garlands of lace which extended down the front bodice and circled the raised waistline. Long, fitted sleeves had lace spray inserts and self ruffle at the wrists. The column skirt was enhanced with lace florets and bordered with a hemline flounce banded with lace and extending around the Chapel train. Her chapel-length veil of English tulle was overlaid with Brussels lace mantilla draped on a lace camelot studded with pearls. She carried white prayerbook topped with white rosebuds, greenery and baby's breath.

Miss Sherry Maddox attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Susie McDaniel and Miss Jan Deveney, both of Kings Mountain. Ashley Harry of Grover was flower girl.

All the attendants wore floor length dresses of beauty interlock styled with halter neckline and covered with a circular capelet with manderin collar. A diamond-shaped trapunto insert accented the front waistline. The gathered front fullness fell to the hemline of the flowing skirts. They carried bouquets of white mums tied with satin streamers.

William Wheeler of Kings Mountain was the bridegroom's best man. Darrell Chriscoe of Lincolnton, brother of the bridegroom, ushered with Bernard Beck and Donnie Beck of Seagrove.

Billy Hiddell of Grover carried the rings.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Maddox chose a formal gown of emerald green poly suede styled with deep V neckline and long, fitted sleeves. An insert at the skirt front held skirt fullness that spread to the hemline. She wore a corsage of white rosebuds.

The bridegroom's mother wore a formal length red chiffon dress with matching cape and a corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Richard Rollins, grandmother of the bride, chose a pink chiffon formal-length gown with a pink cymbidium corsage.

Mrs. John Maddox, grandmother of the bride, chose a green floor-length dress and a white cymbidium corsage.

Mrs. Hubert Parks, grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a pink floor-length gown with white cymbidium corsage.

Mrs. Ralph Goforth of Grover directed the wedding.

Miss Donna Smith presided at the guest register and Miss Donna McGinnis distributed miniature wedding scrolls to the guests.

After receiving guests in the vestibule of the church, the bridal couple left for a trip to Atlanta, Ga. For traveling, the new Mrs. Chriscoe wore a green pant suit and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Shelby will be home for the newlyweds.

Boyd, Hogue Vows Said

Mount Zion Baptist Church provided the setting Saturday for a 4 p. m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Marlene Boyd of Kings Mountain and Johnnie Hogue, Jr. of Grover.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. R. E. Devoe.

Frank Williams of Charlotte was pianist for the program of nuptial music and vocal numbers were by Mrs. Jane Russel Singleton of Charleston, S. C.

James L. Boyd, Sr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal length design of organza and Chantilly lace enhanced by high ruffled neckline, long, fitted sleeves adorned with seed pearls, and deep lace hemline extending to Chapel length train. She wore a fingertip length veil of illusion draped from a matching headpiece and she carried a bouquet of flowers.
