

KMSHS Students Chaperone Visit To Charlotte

By CINDIE FALLS
KMSHS Correspondent

Thirty-one KMSHS students served as chaperones for the Grover

Kindergarten students to go to the Eastland Mall in Charlotte. Each student was given one to two children to attend to as they visited the mall, its talking reindeer and Santa Claus and also the various Christmas displays and shops. Those students who acted as chaperones for the Kindergarten students were Patsy Barnett, Scott Batchelor, David Bolton, Renee Bradley, Carol Bratcher, Kathleen Brennan, Mike Bumgardner, Ramona Burris,

Cindie Falls, Theron Feemster, Larry Gill, Jan Goforth, Nadine Goode, Franklin Goare, Jeff Goudelock, Douglas Jones, Marc Mercier, Susan

Mitchem, Wanda Mitchem, Regina Pearson, Kathy Roberts, David Robertson, Richard Ross, Cindi Salmons, Linda Smith, Mercedes Smith, Robin Spears, Tim Spicer, Lynn Tate, Bruce Valentine and Connie Welch.

On Friday, Dec. 3, a FHA meeting was held at 3

p. m. after school.

The Choirs presented a Christmas Concert on December 9, which was free to the public, and also sang the next morning for the high school.

A Senate meeting was held on Mon., Dec. 13, in which student body president Wesley Narron presided. Topics were discussed concerning club meetings and hopefully an Exchange Day with Burns High School in the near future. A committee was organized to be in charge.

On Tuesday a Pep Rally was held in which the Varsity Basketball teams played Bessemer City.

A House meeting was on Wed., Dec. 15 with student body VP Terry Yarborough acting as chairman.

A Beta Club meeting was held Thursday at 6 p. m. concerning a scholarship to be given a deserving senior.

Also on Thursday the KMSHS band presented its annual Christmas concert that night. The KMSHS Band, also known as Blazer Band, have been invited to lead the parade at Disneyland and have accepted the invitation.

School was dismissed at 1:15 on Friday for Christmas holidays. Students will return on January 8, 1977.
