Whist Party Fetes Miss Laura Plonk

A Court Whist Party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Sincow honored Miss Laura Plonk, whose wedding to Gary Ball takes place New Year's Day in Central United Methodist Church.

Entertaining with Mrs. Sincow was Mrs. Bob Southwell. The Sincow home was beautifully decorated for Christmas. Upon arrival, guests found their places at six tables made festive with red cloths and centered with red and white snowmen and set with holiday napkins and crystal. Strawberry pie was served with coffee.

Miss Plonk was presented a red and white Christmas corsage from the hostesses and a silver coffee server.

Card prizes were awarded to the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. John O. Plonk, highscorer; Mrs. L. E. Hinnant, second high; Miss Bonnie Hinnant, third; and Mrs. Tom W. Harper, consolation. Prize winners gave their MaLeck gifts to the honoree. Out-of-town guests included the bride-to-be's grandmother, Mrs. Hunter R. Neisler, of Hilton Head, S. C.; her aunt, Mrs. H. R. Neisler, III, of Gastonia; and college friends, Deborah McCarter of Boone and Betsy Graham of Ralidgh. Miss Graham and Miss Plonk are roommates at Meredith College.

TV Winner

W. L., M. N. and D. W. Phifer, co-owners of Phifer Hardware Company in Kings Mountain, today won second place in a nationwide retail display stand contest sponsored by Pioneer chain saws.

The men won one of 22 color television sets awarded runners up in the $47,250 national contest. Participating dealers built in-store display stands out of wood using a chain saw.

The Phifer's entry was selected on originality by an independent three-member panel.
