

Young Ladies Urged To Enter

Young ladies of this area are invited to enter the North Carolina United Teenager Pageant to be held at the Reeves Auditorium August 19th, 20th and 21st, 1977, in Fayetteville, North Carolina. The North Carolina pageant is the official State preliminary to the Miss United Teenager Pageant to be held in Washington, D.C., December 1977. Host Hotel for the three day event is the Lordeaux Motor Inn in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Contestants will be judged on Scholastic and Civic Achievements, Beauty, Poise and Personality. No swimsuit competition or talent is involved. Contestants must be between 14 and 18 years of age as of December 31, 1977 and must have at least a "B" average in school. Each contestant accepted will be requested to participate in the Volunteer Community Service Program of the United Teenager Pageant. This program teaches teenagers to share and participate in school and civic affairs by contributing a minimum of eight hours time to some worthwhile Civic or Volunteer work to benefit the community before Pageant time. Each contestant is required to write and present on stage an Essay entitled "My Country."

The winner of the North Carolina Pageant will receive an all-expense paid trip to compete in the Miss United Teenager Pageant in Washington, D. C. and other prizes. Among the prizes that will be awarded at the National Pageant in 1977: $15,000 in scholarships and awards, 1977 Thunderbird for the reigning year, $2,000 personal appearance contract, $2,000 wardrobe. Silver Service-ware and a trip to Europe.

Those interested in entering the North Carolina United Teenager Pageant may write for information to Janice Billings, State Director, P. O. Box 1821, Fayetteville, North Carolina, 28302 or call (919) 822-1453.

Pageant in Raleigh

The All-American Girl Pageant office has announced that Raleigh has been selected as the host city for North Carolina's first All American Girl State Pageant. The pageant will be conducted on June 8-4 at the downtown Holiday Inn. Kim Smith, publicity chairman, has announced that the state pageant will include the categories of the All-American Tot-ages 8-8; All American Little Miss-ages 7-9; All American Miss-ages 10-12; All American Teen ages 13-17; and the All American Girl-ages 18-26. Pageant officials anticipate 16-20 girls will vie for the coveted title in each age group.

Winners in each category will receive a trophy, crown, banner, and will advance to national competition. Trophies will also be presented to the talent winners in each category and they will have the opportunity to compete at the national pageant as candidates-at-large. The National Pageant will be held at Holiday City in Memphis, Tennessee the third week in August. At this time the contestants will be competing for over $5,000 of scholarships and awards.

Parents of would-be contestants are invited to inquire for further information and application by writing All American Girl Pageant, P. O. Drawer, 1680, Dothan, Alabama 36301 or by calling 205-792-4907. PTA's, band boosters, dance schools, civic clubs and other organizations interested in sponsoring a local pageant as a fund raising are also invited to inquire.
