Lawson Aids Rescue At Sea

Coast Guard Boatswain's Mate Second Class Samuel G. Lawson III, whose wife Lillian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brooks of Route 1, Box 270, Kings Mountain, N. C., participated in the rescue of a man in New Orleans.

He was serving as the coxswain of a Coast Guard utility boat from the Coast Guard Captain of the port unit.

His boat was sent to search the harbor on the night of March 31 for a man who had fallen overboard from a ship's launch. The operator of the launch was found clinging to a ship's anchor chain, after slipping into the water while maneuvering in the harbor.

The man was assisted to safety and was listed in satisfactory condition.

He joined the Coast Guard in January 1969.
