

RED AND GREEN TABLE — Mrs. Jim Dickey, chairman of Open Gate Garden Club's successful flower show, in which all garden clubs in the city participated, stands at one of the nine tables displayed in the show last Tuesday at Dellinger's Jewel Shop.

Mountain Country Club Tuesday, a feature of the spring flower show which Kings Mountain garden clubs sponsored. The show was held at Dellinger's Jewel Shop and featured cash prizes to three winning garden clubs.

Courses Offered

The Continuing Education course, guitar, has been announced by Cleveland Tech. The class will begin Tuesday, May 17, from 7 to 9 p. m. at Shelby Jr. High School Chorus Room. Gene Ellis will instruct.

The guitar course offers 2.0 CEU's for teachers wanting credit renewal provided they get approval of their school system's director of staff development.

In addition, to the $5 registration fee, there will be a $25 charge if guitars are furnished for use during the class. If students use their own guitars, there will be only a $15 charge. At the close of the course, students can keep the music that is furnished them during the class.

Persons needing further information are requested to call, 482-8861 between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., Monday through Friday.

T&C Club Wins Prize

Town and Country Garden Club, Kings Mountain Garden Club and Magnolia Garden Club copped the top prizes in the "Welcome Springtime" show Tuesday at Dellinger's Jewel Shop, a salute to spring show sponsored by Open Gate Garden Clubbers.

Several hundred people attended the show, which featured nine tables arranged in the various periods from colonial to oriental.

Dellinger's Jewel Shop presented a $50 cash prize to Town and Country Garden Club, $30 to Kings Mountain Garden Club and $20 to Magnolia Garden Club for their displays.

Judges, all of Columbia, S. C., were Mrs. Katie McGinnis, Mrs. Becky Beck and Mrs. Grace Hallman. They were honored by the hostess club and Dellinger's at a luncheon at Kings Mountain Country Club at noon.

The prize-winning table depicted a formal luncheon for two and was cited for its simplicity with the use of a central arrangement of sweetheart roses.

A Victorian design was featured in the second place winner which featured white cutwork cloth and a central arrangement of mixed spring flowers.

The third place winner was a pink and white bridal luncheon table with floor-length cloth and centerpiece of sweetheart roses.

Open Gate Garden Club decorated a Bachelor's table, Mrs. W. Eugene McCarter had arranged a red and green table featuring red geraniums in the center, Good Earth Garden had entered an Oriental table complete with pillows for seats, chopsticks and an oriental centerpiece and Magnolia Garden Club had arranged a yellow and white table featuring wild poppies for a brunch.

All the nine tables were arranged with exquisite china, silver, and crystal appointments enhancing the motif of the period the table illustrated.

A Cake Cutting Is Held

Miss Kathy Wright and Charles Dover, Jr. cut their wedding cake at an after-rehearsal party Saturday evening in the Fellowship Hall of Kings Mountain Church of God. Entertaining together were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dover, Sr. of York, S. C.

A green and white motif was featured in decorative details and refreshments.

Overlaid with lace over green, the bride's table was centered with an arrangement of yellow daisies and arranged with a wedding cake and silver punch service. Cheese straws, mints, nuts and party pickups were served from silver appointments.

Mrs. James Patterson cut and served the cake and Mrs. Ruth Hughes poured punch.

The bride-to-be wore a long blue dress and a white mink corsage.

Miss Wright and Mr. Dover took the occasion to present their gifts to their wedding attendants.

Officers Elected

Women of the Church of First Presbyterian Church will elect new officers at the annual Birthday Party Wednesday night at 8:30 p. m.

The congregational supper will feature a film depicting the three financial objectives to receive the financial gift; evangelistic outreach in South Africa, ministry for the aging in the United States and criminal justice.

A birthday offering will be received.
