

'Roast' Held To Kickoff KMSH Senior Week

By CINDIE SHORT
KMSHS Correspondent

The FTA-SAE held an assembly Monday morning to "roast" seniors to help kick off Senior Week May 9-14. Those Seniors "roasted" were Mike Bumgarner, Wesley Norton, William Thompson, Theron Feemster, and Chris Holmes. Debbie Hullender served as mistress of ceremonies. Students involved in the Assembly were Brad Tate, Cindy Wells, Kelly Land, Barbara Rhea, Mercedes Smith, Franklin Goare, Belinda Owens, Cindie Short, Debbie Hullender, Lisa Bridges, Tricia Blacklock, David Scruggs, Jon Poston Tony Sabetti, Kenny Vance, Sandra

Wingo, Wanda Mitchem, Kathy Roberts, Sallee Durham, Phyllis Mack, John Masters, Keith Williams, Jeff Boggan, Roxanne Scism and Barbara Patrick. Mrs. Juanita Goforth and Mrs. Cozell Vance, club sponsors, were presented with gifts afterward. The KMSHS Choir sang at the end of the program. Events of the week in which seniors participated: Monday, College Tee-Shirt Day; Tuesday - Hat and Sunglasses Day; Wednesday, Dress like First Grade; Thursday Shorts and Sneaker Day; and Friday, dress like future occupation. The Junior-Senior Prom was held on Saturday, May 7th. The theme was

"We May Never Pass This Way Again." The band was "Land of Oz."

Student Council officers were elected last week. They are: President, Alan

Cloninger, Vice President, Butch Pearson; Secretary, John Reed. George Pittman and his group, "Albany" recently won the Kiwanis Talent

Show in the High School Division. Members of the group are Ricky Broome, vocalist; Shan London, lead guitar; Ted Webster, bass guitar; and George Pittman, drums and percussion.

George "Poovey" Pittman commented by saying, "This band is now playing at parties, clubs and other social engagement. If any club needs a band, we play any type of music except country and top 20. In other words, just plain old rock and roll. I can be contacted at 739-8574."

Receive Pins Saturday

BOILING SPRINGS - Thirty-one nursing students at Gardner-Webb College will receive their nursing pins at a special pinning ceremony, Saturday, May 14, at 4:30 p. m., in the Boiling Springs Baptist Church. Miss Anne Lipscomb, nursing instructor at Gardner-Webb, will speak at the ceremony and deliver a challenge to the graduates.

The pinning, traditional among all nursing schools will be made by Mrs. Grace C. Lee, director of the nursing program at Gardner-Webb. Other members of the nursing faculty will participate.

Dr. Craven E. Williams, president of the college, will extend congratulations and confer the academic award. Each of the students will receive an associate in arts degree from Gardner-Webb at commencement exercises, Sunday, May 15. A native of Gaffney, S. C., Miss Lipscomb received a bachelor of science degree in nursing from the University of South Carolina and has continued her professional training at the University of South Carolina College of Nursing and the Department of Medical Education at Spartanburg General Hospital. Her teaching specialty is intensive coronary care.

Prior to joining the Gardner-Webb faculty in 1976, Miss Lipscomb was program nurse specialist at Crafts-Farrow State Hospital, Columbia, S. C. She has also held positions at Providence Hospital, Columbia, S. C., Cherokee County Memorial Hospital, Gaffney, S. C., and Vanderbilt University Hospital, Nashville, Tenn.
