Churches Plan Outing

Three congregations — Resurrection Lutheran, Central United Methodist and First Presbyterian Churches will join in a summer outing Sunday after the regular worship services at the three churches. Activities will begin with a picnic lunch at 1 p. m. at KOA campgrounds picnic area and at 2 p. m. there will be various contests and games with a trophy going to the winner.

The afternoon will culminate with vesper service at 4 p. m. around the lake.

Brooks Honors Workers

Commissioner of Labor John C. Brooks will honor the employees and management of 78 industrial and service establishments at a special dinner program to be held at Shelby High School Friday, May 13 at 7 p. m.

Commissioner Brooks will present the N. C. Department of Labor's "Certificate of Safety Achievement" to representatives of the Cleveland County firms in recognition of their safety accomplishments during the year 1976.

C. Neil Wilson, Second Vice President of the Greater Shelby Chamber of Commerce, will preside over the program, J. R. Dunkley, chairman of the Chamber's Safety Committee, will introduce Commissioner Brooks to the group. William C. Palmer, Personnel manager of J. P. Stevens & Co., Inc., will pronounce the invocation.

Commissioner Brooks will give a brief talk, outlining the importance of a safe, healthy and well-trained work force in North Carolina.

Commissioner Brooks and other Labor Department officials will participate in 27 safety award presentations across the state this year. The program is under the direction of the State Employment Standards Division, and is sponsored by local civic and community groups.
