

May Day In KM

May Day In KM

EAST SCHOOL MAY QUEEN - East School Principal C. A. Allison places the crown on Patricia Davis at May Day program at East School.

WEST SCHOOL MAY QUEEN Pam Morrow is crowned Queen of May by Asst. Schools Supt. Bill Bates in May Day program at West School.

BETHWARE MAY QUEEN - Bethware School Principal Ronald Nanney crowns Lisa Wright as May Queen during traditional May Day at Bethware School.

NORTH SCHOOL MAY QUEEN - Rainey Hailger reigned as Queen of May in the traditional May Day exercises at North School.

FUNTIME AT BETHWARE - These Bethware students donned Hawaiian costumes to perform during May Day exercises recently at Bethware School.

ELEPHANTS - Kindergarten students dressed up like elephants for a circus scene in the colorful May Day program staged by North School students.

WEST PERFORMERS - These two West School students donned sombreros to perform a Mexican dance as featured entertainment at West School May Day exercises.

Photos by Gary Stewart

HAWAIIAN DANCERS - These young ladies, third graders at North School, dressed up in colorful grass skirts and leis for hula dancing during North School's May Day festivities on the school grounds.

EAST SCHOOL KINDERGARTEN East School's Kindergarten stole the show at May Day festivities at East School where they presented "All About Spring" to the delight of students and parents who attended.