

THIS IS WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT — Here is picture proof of the significance of the Shrine 100 late-model sportsman division stock car race coming up Friday night, May 20, at the Gaston Speedway, five miles south of Gastonia on Union Road. Angela Norman, who'll be seven years old in July and is a first-grade student at South Gastonia School has been in and out of the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Greenville, S. C., for the past several years to undergo surgery for hip deformities. As a result of the skilled hands of the surgeons there, Angela is now facing a normal life as opposed to what was originally feared as bleak at best. There is no charge to patients at the various Shriner

Hospitals and Burned Institute throughout the country. Angela is shown above with members of the Gaston County Shrine Club, which has sponsored the Shrine 100 for the past four years. Left to right, they are Jim Hudson, Boyce Hunt and John Stanley, in his second year as general chairman of the race. Since 1966, the Gaston County Shrine Club has raised more than $120,000 for its charities and specifically the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Greenville, S. C. NCAA District 3 college baseball was sponsored for 17 years before a switch to stock car racing in 1974. (Photo by Johnny Kanipe)

Lady Pats Still Share Lead

Kings Mountain Junior High's girls softball team stayed in a tie for first place in the Foothills Conference last week with victories over West Lincoln, Shelby, and Lincolnton. The Lady Pats bombed West Lincoln 22-0 behind the six-hit pitching of Lisa Hampton and a 22-hit plate attack. Maryanne White went 3-for-3 with two homers to lead the attack. Mary McClain added 3-for-5, Bridget Glass 2-for-3 and Leslie Hamrick and Toni Ross hit home runs.

Hampton hurled another six-hitter in the closer 6-2 victory over Shelby.

Donna Myers and White led the 12-hit KM attack with 3-for-4 each. White and Diane Williams hit homers.

Hampton gave up only four hits in an 18-6 victory over Lincolnton and her mates backed her with a 16-hit attack.

McClain and Hampton both had 3-for-4, and An-drena Goode, Williams, McClain and Susan Howze all hit home runs.

The Lady Pats, now 7-3, were scheduled to play Burns at home yesterday, and they close out their season Monday at Burns. Burns, Crest and East Lincoln are tied with the Lady Pats for first place.
