

MRS. LEWIS RAY MILLER
(Donna Jones)

Millers Exchange Marriage Vows Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ray Miller, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va. and afterwards will be at home in their new home in Virginia Acres, Hudson.

Miss Donna Marlies Jones became Mr. Miller's bride in a 3 p. m. wedding in First Baptist Church.

Rev. John E. Jones, pastor of Swamanoa United Methodist Church and grandfather of the bride, officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Ellen McCurdy was organist for the program of traditional music and Rick Carter of Shelby was vocal soloist. Mr. Carter sang "That's The Way" and "Wedding Prayer" and the benedictional "Thanks Be To Thee." Mrs. McCurdy played "Trumpet Voluntary" for the processional and "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee" for the recessional.

Palms, two wrought-iron candelabra holding cathedral tapers and arrangements of white and apricot carnations, roses and daisies decorated the sanctuary. A white kneeling bench centered the setting.

Dr. Donald D. Jones escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design created of Sata Gio and imported Venise lace over faille taffeta. The empire bodice was styled with a horseshoe neckline outlined with lace sprays studded with pearls. Matching lace defined the raised waistline, trimmed the full Bishop sleeves, and enhanced the chapel train. Her bouffant veil of imported English tulle, was caught to a lace Camelot cap and she carried a round bouquet of apricot and white roses, carnations, and baby's breath tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Roberta Miller of Hudson, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Lynn White of Kings Mountain, Miss Sheila Perry of Connelly Springs, Miss Debbie McNeely of Pineola college classmates of the bride, and Miss Robin Fowler of Asheville, cousin of the bride. Flower girl was Miss Amy Gilbert of Hudson, niece of the bridegroom.

All the attendants wore floor-length gowns of interlock jersey in apricot shade fashioned with a scoop neckline and short, cap sleeves banded with stitched bias folds. Matching stitch folds accented from the waistline with string ties below the bustlines. Flowing A line skirts enhanced the gowns. They carried bouquets of apricot and white roses, carnations, and baby's breath.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Groomsman were Gary Miller of Hudson, brother of the bridegroom; Jeff Jones and David Jones of Kings Mountain, brothers of the bride; and Billy Canipe of Charlotte. Robby Miller of Hudson, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a beautifully appointed wedding reception in the First Baptist Fellowship Hall where the apricot theme was beautifully featured in decorative details and refreshments. A tiered wedding cake was central highlight for the bride's table, decorated in the bridal colors.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Grace White, Mrs. Ada Bridges, Mrs. Peggy Hord, Mrs. Nancy McGill, Miss Sheila Thomas, Miss Suzanne Jones, Miss Dana Rice, Miss Karen Rice, Miss Angel Allen, Miss Laura Allen, Miss Jennifer Brown, and Miss Cindy Gilbert.

Miss Cindy Swafford invited guests to register.

For their wedding trip, the bride chose a street length dress of pink Quiana with white accessories and the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Dr. and Mrs. Donald D. Jones of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride who is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and graduated May 15th from Gardner Webb College at Bowling Springs. She will be employed during the summer at the Mount Zion Baptist Church Summer Day Camp Program at Hudson.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Miller, Jr. of Hudson and is a graduate of Hudson High School and received his degree in 1971 from Caldwell Community College. He is a partner in Miller Construction Company in Hudson.

Hudson, North Carolina will be home for the newlyweds.

Outdoor Rites Unite Ware-Stallings Couple

In an outdoor ceremony characterized by natural beauty and simplicity, Miss Jean Elizabeth Ware became the bride of George Russell Stallings Saturday at the home of the bride.

The Rev. Frank Shirley, pastor of Temple Baptist

Church, heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony in the presence of their immediate families and friends.

Against a background of natural greenery, Scheffers and Dumbcane, the bride and bridegroom pledged vows at 8:30 p. m. on the porch of the bride's home which was decorated in cut garden flowers and pink and white roses.

The bride wore an informal wedding gown of cream chiffon featuring V neckline enhanced by capelet effect over the shoulders of the two-piece dress which featured a long flowing skirt.

After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom cut their wedding cake at a reception hosted by the bride's mother, Mrs. Paul Ware. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with a lace cloth and held the green and white wedding cake as central highlight. Green candles were used at the center of the table and green punch was served from a punch bowl at one end of the table. Nuts, mints, and cheese straws were also served.

When they return from a trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina the newlyweds will be at home in Shelby.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Paul Ware of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Ware. She is a 1975 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and attended Central Piedmont College.

Mr. Stallings is son of Mrs. Edward Stallings of Shelby and the late Mr. Stallings. He is a graduate of Shelby High School and Western Carolina University and is employed by U. S. Shelter Corporation of Charlotte with headquarters in Shelby.

MRS. GEORGE RUSSELL STALLINGS
(Jean Elizabeth Ware)

Shower Honors Miss Hallman

Miss Jean Hallman, whose wedding to Bobby Dyer takes place June 19 in Patterson Grove Baptist Church, was honored Tuesday evening at a bridal drop-in at the home of Mrs. Ralph Harrison.

Entertaining with Mrs. Harrison were Mrs. Edith Lovell, Mrs. Dot Humphries and Mrs. Sue Hayes.

The 25 guests who called from 7 until 9 p. m. showered the bride-to-be with gifts for her new home.

The bridal theme of apricot was featured in decorative details and refreshments. White cake squares topped with apricot roses, nuts, and mints were served with lime sherbet from a table decorated in yellow flowers.

Miss Hallman was presented a white orchid corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her green jersey party dress.

Receiving with the bride-to-be was her mother, Mrs. Bob Hallman.

Miss Jones Honored At Saturday Brunch

Donna Jones, who became the bride of Lewis Miller last Saturday, was the special guest at a pre-ceremony brunch.

The brunch was held at the Garrison Dr. home of Mrs. Joe Lee, with Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Tommy Bridges and Mrs. Roger Gaddis serving as hostesses.

The 13 guests included the bridesmaids and mothers of the bride and bridegroom — Mrs. Donald Jones of Kings Mountain and Mrs. R. B. Miller of Hudson.

The brunch was held at 9 a. m. on the sundeck of the Lee home.

BAKE SALE

Ladies of Mt. Zion Baptist Church are sponsoring a bake sale Saturday at Winn-Dixie and TG&Y and all proceeds will benefit the church projects.

Hintons Wed In Saturday Rites

Raleigh's New Hope Baptist Church provided the setting Saturday for a 4 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Kim Maria Allen of Raleigh and Thomas Russell Hinton of Kings Mountain.

The couple had written their own wedding ceremony, which included congregational singing and responsive readings. Rev. Jack F. Coffey, minister of the church, and Rev. Russell L. Hinton, father of the bridegroom, heard the exchange of vows.

Mrs. Alma Sparks was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal numbers were by Pat Burchette, Karen Hinton, sister of the bridegroom, Carol Smith and Chip Cardwell.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and arranged with white flowers interspersed by wrought-iron candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk sheer and Venise lace designed with V neckline enhanced by double rows of lace giving the effect of a bertha collar over sleeveless sleeve. The empire bodice had the Venise lace motif throughout the gown and the A line skirt, also enhanced with lace, extended into a Chapel-length train. Her cathedral length veil was edged in matching lace and attached to a lace Juliet cap, and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses and stephanotis.

Miss Sherry Allen was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Beverly Long and Mrs. Janet Tilton, both of Raleigh, and Mrs. Cindy George of Lakeland, Fla., all college classmates of the bride.

All the attendants wore formal apricot cushion-dot organza, fashioned with a scooped neckline accented with a border of white Venise lace, in daisy pattern, and a deep flounced ruffle of sheer that formed cap sleeves. The full A-line skirts were bordered at the hemlines with a matching, deep ruffle and outlined with white Venise lace. They carried arm bouquets of bridal flowers and stephanotis tied with ribbons to match their gowns.

David Qualls of Shelby was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Alan Bunn of Delonon, Minn., Bob Causby of Shelby and Mike Allen of Raleigh.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception which carried out the apricot theme of the wedding. The bride and bridegroom cut their wedding cake which was central decoration for the bride's table, also decorated in the apricot theme.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Both the bride and bridegroom graduated May 16th from Mars Hill College and will be employed this summer on the church staff of Trinity Baptist Church in Whiteville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allen, Jr. of Raleigh.

The bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Russell Lee Hinton of Kings Mountain.

After a wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home on East Lewis Street in Whiteville.

After their rehearsal on Friday evening, Rev. and Mrs. Russell Hinton entertained members of the wedding party at dinner at Ballentine's in Raleigh. The bridal pair took the occasion to present gifts to members of their wedding party.

MRS. THOMAS RUSSELL HINTON
(Kim Maria Allen)

Good Earth Club Met On Wednesday

The Good Earth Garden Club met on Wed., May 11th, for a program planned by Connie (Mrs. Mickey) Bell and Sandra (Mrs. Nelson) Connor.

The first segment of the program consisted of a tour of the rose garden of Mrs. Carl Mauney, who answered questions concerning pruning, watering, fertilizing, and clipping. Other items of interest were the rhododendron, camellias, figs, strawberries, and vegetable garden.

Members then returned to Kings Mountain Savings & Loan Conference Room for a slide presentation on the planting of roses. Each member received several complimentary booklets on garden plants by Ortho from Bridges Hardware Co.

During the business meeting, plans were discussed for a social in late summer and a fund-raising project in late fall.

Hostesses, Gail (Mrs. Lyn) Cheahire and Mary Lou (Mrs. Jim) Ware served refreshments.

Photo By Lib Stewart

BRIDES HONORED — Recent brides, Mrs. James Edward Mauney, left, and Mrs. Kemp Mauney, right, were entertained recently at a tea hosted by Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., center, at the Mauney home on E. Gold Street. Several hundred guests called during reception hours. Mrs. Kemp Mauney is the former Debbie Spouse of Kings Mountain. Mrs. James Mauney is the former Anne Jenkins of Harrisburg.

SAMPLE YARDAGE

Downtown Kings Mountain
Fabrics At Wholesale Prices And Below

Printed
QIANA NYLON

Twenty beautiful patterns to select from in florals and abstract designs all in soft pastels.
Ideal for elegant evening wear or your most intimate apparel.

Regular To $6.00 Yard Value
Our Reg. Low Price
$3.99 Per Yard

Extra Special 2 Yds. $5.00

SAMPLE YARDAGE

South Cherokee St.
Downtown Kings Mountain