It's Cleanup Time

Clean-Up-Paint-Up-Fix-Up Week is underway in Kings Mountain and Phyllis (Mrs. John) Cheshire, chairman of the Mayor's Appearance Committee, is inviting area property owners to do just that.

Mrs. Cheshire suggests that home owners follow the examples of the city in beautifying their lawns. Under auspices of the city beautification committee and led by Ava (Mrs. Fred) Dixon, flowers and plants have added to the decor of the new Depot Center and the two mini parks in downtown Kings Mountain. At least one garden club has also completed plantings in one of the two parks.

Another addition downtown is the newly-planted concrete garden flower boxes on many of the streets, enhancing the appearance of the city and adding spring color.

Mrs. Cheshire invites everyone to get on the "clean up bandwagon."
