

Hords Celebrate Anniversary

A reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Hord on their Golden Wedding Day was held May 28th at Woodbridge Country Club.

Entertaining were the couple's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. La Don Arrington and their daughter and son-in-law and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Carpenter, Jr. and Donald R. Carpenter, III.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim White greeted guests at the front door.

The honored couple received with their children and grandchildren.

Mrs. Frances Hord Petty invited guests to the refreshment table and Mrs. Bun E. Goforth served punch and Mrs. Sarah Van Alken and Mrs. Thomas Austell cut and served the wedding cake. Presiding at a champagne fountain were Mrs. Marjorie Baitly and Mrs. Shuford Peeler.

The refreshment table, highlight of decoration, was covered with a white tablecloth and arranged with yellow carnations, senapdragons, pompons, and yellow roses, carrying out the golden wedding theme. Horsdouvres, cheese rings, sausage balls, nuts, mints and fancy sandwiches were served from silver appointments. The gold and white wedding cake was cut and served from one end of the table and punch was served from a silver punch service. A champagne fountain centered a second refreshment table which was overlaid with white cloth and decorated in the golden wedding theme.

Mrs. Hord wore a long blue gown with chiffon jacket and a white orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hord, well-known Kings Mountain citizens and owners and operators of Hord's Grocery, in downtown Kings Mountain for 60 years, were married May 28, 1927. Mrs. Hord is the former Kathleen Rhyne of Shelby, daughter of Mrs. Herbert Rhyne of Shelby

Putnams Married On Friday

Patterson Grove Baptist Church was the setting Friday evening for an 8 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Cindy Sue Kiser and Douglas Ray Putnam both of Kings Mountain.

The Rev. Richard Plyler, minister of the church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Miss Roxanne Scism was pianist for the program of nuptial music.

The bride and bridegroom came to the altar together. The bride wore a formal gown of peau de'ange lace and satin featuring long, Victorian traditional sleeves and Chapel train. An empire waist, A line skirt and high neckline were features of the dress. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a Camelot cap accented with clusters of pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayerbook covered with lace and topped with carnations, daisies, baby's breath and greenery and showered with ribbons of satin streamers.

Mrs. Keith Moss of Kings Mountain was her sister's matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a long mint green dress and carried a bouquet of daisies and baby's breath.

Lloyd Putnam was his son's best man.

Daughter of Mrs. Sybil Hamrick of Thomasville and Horace Kiser of Kings Mountain, the bride is a 1977 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and is employed by Cato's of Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dot Putnam of Florida and Lloyd Putnam of Kings Mountain and is a graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High and is employed by Gastonia's Holiday Inn.

After a wedding trip to Tennessee the newlyweds will be at home on Putnam Lake Road in Kings Mountain.

Loves Married On Sunday

Eastside Baptist Church of Blacksburg, S. C. was the setting Sunday, June 5th, for the wedding of Miss Cheryl Ann Allison and Danny Ray Love.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony at 3 p. m. before the Rev. M. P. Hampton and Rev. Ben M. Allison. Mrs. Bob Cashion was organist for the program of wedding music and Odell Love was vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of fallie taffeta overlaid with Venise lace and seed pearls. The empire bodice and bishop sleeves were applied in matching lace and seed pearls and the A line skirt extended to a full Chapel length train bordered with Venise lace scallops. Her three-tiered veil was edged in lace and attached to a lace headpiece. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, baby's breath, pompons and red rosebuds.

The bride's sister, Miss Karen Allison, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Vickie Sexton of Grover, Miss Barbara Laughlin of Gaffney and Miss Sandy Love of Blacksburg. Junior bridesmaids were Angela Redman of Kings Mountain and Renee Putnam of Blacksburg. Leigh Ann Satterwhite was flower girl.

Miss Ann Carol presided at the guest register.

Olin Love was his son's best man.

Ushers were Willie Campbell of Blacksburg,

S. C., Larry Weaver of Shelby and Darriel Love, the bridegroom's brother of Grover. Junior ushers were Terry Rippy of Blacksburg and Eric Stacy of Grover. Keith Cashion carried the rings.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben M. Allison of Rt. 2, Blacksburg, S. C., is a 1977 graduate of Blacksburg High School.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Olin R. Love of Blacksburg, S. C., the bridegroom is a 1976 graduate of Blacksburg High and is employed by Love's Fish Box in Kings Mountain.

After a wedding trip to the Coast, the newlyweds will be at home in Grover.
