Odie Is A Cool 94

Mrs. Odie Blanton, 94 years young Tuesday, celebrated her birthday by fanning and rocking in the shade while friends and relatives paid call.

She makes her home with John and Estelle Weaver on Grover Rd., enjoys crocheting, reading her Bible and other books.

Attending her birthday party, which was a day-long affair, were Misses Grace and Bertha Blanton, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Edwards, Steve Stevans, and three children from Gadsden, Alabama, Mrs. Gladys Sellers, Mrs. Roy Pearson and David Delevie.

The Kings Mountain woman said she hadn't remembered the weather as hot as it has been in the last several months.

Although her hearing is poor, she enjoys reading and is very active in her church and community.

Well-wishers were cooling off by sitting on the front porch in swings and enjoying three homemade birthday cakes and homemade ice cream.
