

MRS. DAVID ROBERT SANDERS
(Margaret Ann Leach)

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders On Beach Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. David Robert Sanders, who were wed Friday, are on a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. and afterwards will be at home in the Winter Park Sub-Division of Shelby.

Miss Margaret Ann Leach became Mr. Sanders' bride in a 6 p. m. wedding in Boyce Memorial ARP Church.

Dr. Charles E. Edwards officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Trip McGill of Kings Mountain was organist for the program of nuptial music and Evelyn Kiser of Waco was soloist. Mrs. Kiser sang "We've Only Just Begun," before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

White gladiolus and seven-branched candelabra interspersed with magnolia foliage centered the setting and magnolias banked the front of the sanctuary.

Timmy Leach escorted his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of organza designed with scoop neck bodice overlaid with cotton Venice lace. The empire waistline fell to a gently flared skirt with a Chapel length train. The sheer Bishop sleeves were appliqued with lace and caught to a cuff at the wrist. Matching lace enhanced the hemline. Her waist-length veil of illusion was caught to a bandeau cap covered in matching lace and she carried a bouquet of white daisies and yellow sweetheart roses with streamers of white satin.

Miss Tina Whitaker was her cousin's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Donna Whitaker, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Dennis Martin, sister of the bridegroom, all of Kings Mountain. All the attendants wore green crepe empire-waisted formals with lace-overlaid bodice and cuffs enhanced by sheer sleeves with lace trim around the waistline. They carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies tied with white and yellow streamers.

Dennis Martin, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Ushers were Mickey Anderson and Edward Collins, both of Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception in the Second Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Ronnie Greene, sister of the bridegroom, assisted in serving.

The yellow and white theme of the wedding featured decorations and refreshments. A three-tier yellow and white wedding cake was topped with yellow roses and sweetpeas and centered the table. Green punch was served by a crystal punch bowl at one end of the table.

Party pick-ups were served from crystal appointments.

For a trip to the coast, the bride chose a yellow sundress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Shirley Leach of Kings Mountain and is a 1976 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School. She is employed by Clevefont Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben R. Sanders of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom who is a 1974, graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and is employed by Fiber Industries in Shelby and also serves in the South Carolina National Guard at York, South Carolina.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arthurs of Salisbury, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Ralph Sanders, Gertrude Boyd, and Ruth Day, all of Charlotte; Gwendolyn Malcolm of Michigan; and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Loggans of Rockwell.

MR. AND MRS. LINDSEY C. WOODS
... note Golden Wedding Day

Lindseys Observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey C. Woods celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sun., July 31.

The couple was honored with a reception at Dover Club House in Shelby with 150 guests attending. Children of the couple are Mrs. Bynum L. Woods and Mrs. Janice Putnam, both of Kings Mountain, David Z. Woods of Shelby, Mrs. Hilda Roach of Charlotte and Mrs. Faye Patton of Spartanburg, S. C. They have 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Cannons Are Wed In Saturday Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hampton Cannon, Jr., who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn. and afterwards will be at home in Mullins, South Carolina.

Nell Ross Green became Mr. Cannon's bride in an eight o'clock formal wedding in Grace United Methodist Church.

The Rev. C. George Sherrill officiated, using the double-ring ceremony and the Unity Candle Service.

Robert Cashion of Kings Mountain was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Richard Hicks of Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Hicks sang "There Is Love" before the ceremony and the benediction "Wedding Prayer." Members of the congregation prayed "The Lord's Prayer" after the minister's Prayer of Blessing.

Mr. Cashion played a pre-wedding recital for the lighting of candles by the sons of the bride and bridegroom, Eric Green, Darryl Cannon, David Green, and Alan Cannon who served as acolytes. Mr. Cashion played "St. Anthony Chorale" for the processional of the attendants, "Trumpet Voluntary" for the entrance of the bride on the arm of the bridegroom; and "Ode To Joy" by Beethoven for the recessional.

The altar of the church was enhanced by cathedral tapers in two wrought-iron candelabra with candles used in each window of the sanctuary. The bride and bridegroom lighted a Unity candle on the altar table after the vows were spoken. In the vestibule, a table covered with lace held an open Bible with a tall yellow candle beside the register.

The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of beige Quilana and featuring a lace cape with train. She carried a bouquet of daisies.

Miss Peggy Ross attended her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. Linda Rome was matron of honor. Junior bridesmaid was the bride's daughter, Miss Amy Green.

The three attendants wore formal pastel green gowns and carried bouquets of yellow mums.

Kim Rome was flower girl. She wore a yellow formal and carried a basket of yellow flower petals.

Dwayne Cannon was his son's best man. Jerry Ross, the bride's brother, ushered with Ernest Rome of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Janice Deaton presided at the guest register in the vestibule of the church where the bride and bridegroom and members of the wedding party received guests after the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ross
