Pair Of SWC Matches

Kings Mountain's girls volleyball team split a pair of Southwestern 3-A Conference matches last week, losing to Chase 16-14, and 15-13 Wednesday and defeating R-S Central 15-8 and 15-11 Thursday.

The Mountaintettes are scheduled to host county rival Shelby Thursday at 4 p. m. in their regular season finale. The conference tournament is scheduled to begin next week at a site not yet decided.

Coach Kathy Brooks called the Chase game "the most evenly matched game" of the season. She cited Angie Hickman for bringing the team back in the second game after KM fell behind 11-3. The Mountaintettes came back to tie it at 11-all before Chase went on to win.

Priscilla Rickenbacker did a good job serving for KMHS and Debbie Appling, Judy Henderson and Lori Smith were cited for their defensive play.

Thursday against R-S, the Mountaintettes were in command all the way. They led the first game from start to finish and controlled the second game after falling behind only briefly at the start.

"Everybody played an outstanding game," noted Coach Brooks, who used all of her players.

Coach Brooks cited Appling, Henderson, Tricia Blalock, Rickenbacker, Jewel Reavis, Smith, Hickman, Penny Jackson and Barbara McClain.

Bass Tournament Slated Saturday

DENVER, N. C. — Officials of the Denver Jaycees reported today that plans are shaping up well for their upcoming Bass Fishing Tournament. The contest is scheduled for Saturday, October 8 from 7:30 a. m. till 4:30 p. m. on Lake Norman.

Headquarters for the event will be the Pier Marina on Hwy. 15 near Plant Marshall at Terrell, N. C.

Gridders In Big Games

Kings Mountain's pee wee and junior midget footballers will face tough assignments Wednesday at John Gamble Stadium when they host Belmont in a pair of Gaston League contests.

Pee Wee action gets underway at 6 p. m. with the junior midgets kicking it off at 7.

Both KM teams are undefeated, the junior midgets displaying a perfect 4-0 record and the pee wees 3-0-1. The pee wees were idle last week while the junior midgets beat a tough Bessemer City team 13-6.

The Belmont junior midgets are unbeaten in league play and share first place with KM and Mason Athletics. Belmont's only loss was a 7-6 decision to Mason, the team which is the top-ranked team in the nation.

Kings Mountain's junior pee wees, which consists of boys ages eight and nine, are also unbeaten, having whipped McAdenville 19-6 and Mt. Holly 20-0.

In last Thursday's game with Mt. Holly, the KM team got three touchdowns from Edwin Sherer. He scored on a 70 yard kickoff return and on runs of 30 and 25 yards. Scotty Bryant ran for the extra point.

Coaches Rick Sutherland, Jim Littlejohn and Danny Bagwell cited Phillip Ramsey, Derek Jordan, Dale Putnam and Vic Crowley led the defensive effort.

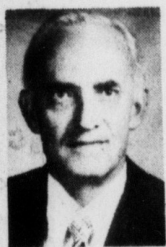

KM plays Mt. Holly Thursday at 7 p. m. at City Stadium, then ends the season with games against Belmont and McAdenville.
