MATTHEW BLACK

Celebrates At Home With Party

Sat., Oct. 29 was Matthew Black's eighth birthday and he celebrated it with a party at home. Friends and relatives were invited to share Matt's cake, ice cream and other goodies. The son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Black of Rt. 1, Matthew is the grandson of Mrs. Lucy Crofts Ogle of Newton and the late Fred Crofts of Shelby and the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Black of Kings Mountain. Matthew's mother is the former Evelyn Crofts of Shelby.

LAURA BETH MOSS

Observes Halloween Birthday

Laura Elizabeth Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry O. Moss, celebrated her fourth birthday Nov. 1st. A Halloween birthday party was held at her home at 306 Fulton Drive on Sunday afternoon. About twenty children and family enjoyed refreshments and a Halloween cake and ice cream. Laura Beth is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oliver and the late Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Moss of Kings Mountain. She is the great-granddaughter of Mrs. Lula Oliver Curry of Shelby.

Members Attended Conference

Six members of Otis D. Green Post 155 and Auxiliary attended the Fall Conference of the American Legion and Auxiliary in Asheville during the weekend. They were District 23 Commander Rick Moore, Gene Tignor, Bud Ware, Carl Wilson, Mrs. Jackie Barrett, Unit Vice President, and Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Unit President and immediate past state president. Meetings were held at The Great Smoky Hilton.
