

Second Baptist Church Is Setting For Wedding

Second Baptist Church was the setting Sat., Nov. 26th, at 3 p. m. for the wedding of Miss Cynthia Denise Guyton and Charles Steven Wilson.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Eugene Land, minister of the church.

Mrs. Ray Bridges was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Neiman Kell. Mr. Kell sang "More" and "There is Love" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar for the benediction.

The church decorations included floor baskets filled with yellow and bronze mums. A golden arch was flanked on either side with baskets of snapdragons, pom poms and baby's breath. Wrought iron candelabra were also placed on either side of the arch. The altar was banked with green palms and the bridal couple knelt before the altar on a prayer bench.

James Guyton escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was an Original design created of Quilana and imported Venise lace. The contour bodice featured a cameo yoke of Brussels-type lace outlined with sculptured lace sprays delicately traced with pearls and crystals and topped with an Edwardian collar of lace scrolls. Matching lace defined the raised waistline. Long, fitted sleeves had lace inserts traced with pearls and lace scrolls at the wrists. The flowing A-line skirt had a hemline border of lace scrolls which extended around the chapel train. She wore a Chapel length veil of imported English tulle bordered with Venise lace florets and caught to a matching lace calot. She carried bride's roses on a white lace-covered Bible.

Mrs. Steve Boheler of Wilmington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Mike Blanton of Bristol, Va., Mrs. Jackie Barnette of Kings Mountain, sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Lori Guyton, sister of the bride, and Miss Debbie Simmons and Miss Christy Mitchem, all of Kings Mountain. Anita Wright was flower girl.

All the attendants wore floor-length dresses of dusty blue interlock jersey styled with high draped necklines and long, fitted sleeves. A bias cummerbund circled the waists and the dresses were enhanced by flowing A-line skirts. They carried arm bouquets of yellow mums tied with satin streamers.

Charles W. Wilson, Jr. was his son's best man.

Groomsmen were Rommie Wilson, the bridegroom's brother; Jackie Barnette, Mike Blanton, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom; Steve Boheler, brother-in-law of the bride, and Lanny Guyton, cousin of the bride.

David DiSabato carried the rings and Kim Rome distributed wedding scrolls.

Mrs. Derek Roper, aunt of the bride, presided at the bride's register in the vestibule of the church.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception in the church fellowship hall which carried out the wedding colors. A decorated bride's cake was central decoration for the bride's table and punch and party refreshments were served from silver appointments. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Dewitt Guyton, Mrs. Frank Bell and Mrs. Charles Wright.

Mrs. C. M. Lankford directed the wedding. After a trip to the mountains, the newlyweds are residing in their new home on Fulton Road.

Married For 50 Years

The Everette Bridges Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Everette T. Bridges were honored Sun., Nov. 27 on their golden wedding anniversary by their sons, daughters and grandchildren.

The Bridges were married Nov. 26, 1927 in Eastland, Ga., the home of the bride, who was the former Florence Faircloth. Mr. Bridges is a native of Statesville.

MR. AND MRS. EVERETTE T. BRIDGES

A reception was held for the Bridges at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Falls Jr., who greeted almost 100 guests between 3 and 5 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridges and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Bridges, sons and daughters-in-law of the honorees, escorted guests to the refreshment table.

The table was covered with a white nylon cloth with lace trim over a yellow cloth. The centerpiece was a gold candelabra with yellow mums, snapdragons and baby's breath. On one end of the table was a four-tier wedding cake and on the other was a cut-glass crystal punch bowl on a gold stand. Guests were served finger sandwiches, cheese wafers and mints on crystal plates.

Mrs. Linda Falls Lyman and Mrs. Johanna Cole, granddaughters of the honorees, cut and served cake to the guests. Mrs. Brenda Falls and Mrs. Denise Falls, granddaughters-in-law, served punch. Miss Julie Pifer and Miss Carla Bridges, granddaughters, assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pifer, daughter and son-in-law of the honorees, said goodbyes to the guests. The sons and daughters presented the Bridges with two gold-base crystal lamps. The grandchildren presented the honorees with an antique ceiling fan for the sunporch of their 812 W. Mountain St. home.

Special out-of-town guests were Mrs. Bridges two sisters, Mrs. Luther Lipscomb of Miami, Fla. and Mrs. E. Lloyd Hall of Greenville, S. C. and Mr. Bridges two brothers, Clarence Bridges of Kannapolis and Edwin Bridges of Gastonia.

VFW Plans Yule Events

VFW Post 9811 is planning two Christmas events next Friday and Sunday, according to Commander D. H. Brown.

Fri., Dec. 16 at 7 p. m. a Christmas dinner party is scheduled for members and their guests at the post. The charge is $5 per couple and $2.50 for singles.

"Members can make reservations by contacting Bob Parton, post manager, or myself," Brown said. Brown is available daily at the Silver Villa Restaurant. Parton can be contacted at the VFW Post.

On Sun., Dec. 18 at 2 p. m., the post will sponsor a Christmas party for the children (through age 12) of the members. Santa Claus will be on hand and gifts will be given to the youngsters.
