Hosts Circle

Mrs. Paul Mauney was hostess Saturday night at her home to members of Circle One of Dixon Presbyterian Church for the traditional Christmas party and exchange of gifts.

Refreshments carrying out the holiday theme were served.

Mrs. David Hughes, president of Women of the Church, presided over business of the meeting and Mrs. Tom Humphries led the Bible Study.

thews Lutheran Church have earned the new World Conservation Award announced Thomas R. Deimler, Scout Executive of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The award is made by the World Wildlife Fund of Washington, D. C. through the Boy Scouts of America and recognizes achievement in environmental improvement, natural resource conservation, and an understanding of world conservation problems.

The purpose of the award is to point out to young people that countries of the world are closely interrelated through natural resources and that we in this country are interdependent with our world environment.

To win this award, Scouts Brooks and Cornwell earned Conservation and Environmental skill awards, merit badges in Environmental Science, Soil and Water Conservation, Fish and Wildlife Management, and Citizenship in the world. Their Scoutmaster is Thomas E. King.

The Piedmont Council is an United Way agency.
