Hayes Will Be Going Home

Sgt. Bob Hayes, Kings Mountain police officer, continues to improve in the Kings Mountain Hospital from gunshot wounds sustained early Monday morning while assisting other officers in making an arrest.

A second Kings Mountain man has been charged in the shooting of the 16-year veteran with Kings Mountain Police Department.

Tommy Bright, 23, of North Piedmont Ave., was charged with aiding and abetting assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious bodily injury with intent to kill and with simple possession of a Schedule Four substance and public drunkenness. Bond is set at $3,000.

Jailed Monday in Cleveland County Jail on charges of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious bodily injury with intent to kill is Melvin Haskell Carroll, 38, of North Piedmont Ave. Following a bond hearing on Monday,

Rush Is Over

The Kings Mountain Postoffice staff reported the Christmas 1977 mail storm virtually over Wednesday afternoon.

In spite of the nastiest of weather Tuesday and peak loads of incoming and outgoing mail, the racks were kept clear even through heaviest of mailings.

The Christmas-mailing season appeared to begin earlier this season.

Carroll's bond was raised from $2500 to $10,000. A preliminary hearing has been set for January 3 in Cleveland District Court.

Sgt. Hayes successfully underwent surgery Tuesday for removal of four bullets which struck him in the back and side.

According to police reports, events which led to the shooting began with the arrest by Ptl. Ralph Grindstaff of a suspect on a drug charge who jumped from his patrol car and ran into a residence on North Piedmont Ave. Monday morning about 1 a.m. Assisting in the apprehension of the suspect, Hyes reportedly approached the house when another man came out of the residence, pointed a gun at Hayes and ordered him to leave. Hayes left the house but parked his car a short distance away, slipping around the back of the residence. There, according to police reports, Hayes saw the man who had pointed a gun at him sitting on the hood of a car and ran toward him but slipped and fell. The officer was reportedly shot four times while he lay on the ground.

Ptl. Grindstaff reportedly chased Carroll on foot and handcuffed him at the scene, assisted by Ptl. Anthony Ager.

Sgt. Hayes is expected to be discharged from the hospital in time to spend Christmas holidays with his wife, Sue and daughter, Debbie.

The Best to You at Christmas
May you and your family enjoy a happy holiday. We thank you warmly.
