

Art To Be Featured

Student artwork by outstanding student artists from the four Junior High and four Senior High schools in the county will be featured in an exhibit at Kings Mountain Depot Center this week through March 10th from 1:30 until 5 p. m. daily.

The public is invited to the show, sponsored by the Shelby Art League.

Art teachers from each of the eight schools were invited to each select 15 entries for the exhibition. Thirty pieces of art by Kings Mountain area students are included in the show, representing artistic talents of Junior High and Senior High artists.

Local art instructors are Mrs. Diane Harper at KMSHS and Eugene McLain at KMHJH.

There is no admission charge.

Mauneys Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Dr. and Mrs. William Lawrence Mauney were honored on their Silver Wedding Anniversary Feb. 28th at a reception hosted by their children at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall.

Entertaining together were Captain William Lawrence Mauney, Jr. of Minot, North Dakota, Dr. and Mrs. C. Jeff Mauney of Shelby and Miss Jennie Gray Mauney of Salem College, Winston-Salem.

More than 200 friends and relatives called during reception hours of 4 and 7 p. m.

A spring color theme, with pinks and blues predominating was beautifully featured throughout the Fellowship Hall. The refreshment table was covered with a floor-length white lace cloth and held a silver candelabrum set with tapers with epergnettes of snaps, jonquils, camellias and Dutch Iris in pinks, blues, white and yellow.

Noegays of pink Perfection camellias garlanded the table. A silver punch bowl was at one end of the table and silver appointments held broccoli in pastry shells, fancy sandwiches, ham biscuits, chicken drumettes and cheese biscuits.

Mrs. Robert Wilson served hot broccoli from a silver bowl at one end of the table, and Miss Christine Still served pink punch.

The three-tier pedestal pink and white anniversary cake was centerpiece for a round table, overlaid with a floor-length lace cloth. Topping the cake were fresh roses and snapdragons. Pink Perfection camellias outlined the cake, which Mrs. George Houser cut and served to guests.

Dr. and Mrs. Jeff Mauney greeted arriving callers and Mr. and Mrs. Knox Winget of Gastonia, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. W. L. Mauney, were at the register. The honored couple received with Captain Lawrence Mauney, Miss Jennie Gray Mauney, and their pastor and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Clominger. Assisting in serving were Mrs. George Plonk, Mrs. Garland Still of Gastonia, and Miss Leigh Anne Wilson.

Guests included five members of Libby Winget and Dr. W. L. Mauney's original wedding party Feb. 21, 1953 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Winget in Albemarle. They were Lawrence Mauney, Jr., who served as ringbearer; Mrs. Robert Lee of Gastonia, a junior bridesmaid; Garland Still of Gastonia, acolyte; Knox Winget of Gastonia, an usher; and Miss Christine Still, junior bridesmaid.

Mrs. Mauney, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Winget of Albemarle, is a former Kings Mountain teacher who now serves as librarian at Bethware School.

Dr. Mauney, Cleveland County podiatrist, is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. Lawrence Mauney of Kings Mountain, prominent Kings Mountain citizens for many years.

Out-of-town guests were from Albemarle, Gastonia and Charlotte.
