

Grover Church Setting For Wares Ceremony

Allen Memorial Baptist Church of Grover was the setting April 1 for an exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Patricia Louise Wright of Grover and Timothy Harold Ware of Kings Mountain.

The couple exchanged vows of the double-ring ceremony at 2 p. m. before the Rev. Marvin Greenway, pastor of the church.

Toney Hardin was organist and Evelyn Bridges was vocalist for the program of nuptial music. Mrs. Bridges sang "Love Story" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar for the benediction.

White and yellow mums, greenery and candles decorated the sanctuary.

Ottis Wright escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white dotted swiss over bridal satin designed with short sleeves featuring lace inserts and long train. Her formal-length mantilla was draped from a satin headpiece and she carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses, white carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. Doris Hoyle of Shelby attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Patsy Wright and Mrs. Cathy Wright, both of Grover, sisters-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Janice Horn, Mrs. Cathy Davis, bridegroom, all of Kings Mountain, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Freda Ware, sister-in-law of the floral sheer and carried bouquets of small white mums centered by a yellow mum with streamers of ribbon and stephanotis.

Curtis Ware was his son's best man.

Groomsmen were John Wright, Barry Wright, both of Grover, brothers of the bride; Doug Ware, brother of the bridegroom; and Frank Davis, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, both of Kings Mountain.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception at their home which carried out the theme of the wedding.

A pink and white tiered wedding cake was cut and served with punch and party refreshments.

The newlyweds have returned from a trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina and are at home in the Oak Grove Community.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Otis S. Wright of Grover are parents of the bride who is a 1977 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ware of Kings Mountain, is also a 1977 graduate of KMSHS and is employed by Winn-Dixie Warehouses in Charlotte.

Churches Plan Fun Day

Ecumenical Fun Day is slated by three Kings Mountain church congregations on Sun., Apr. 30th, at KOA Camp-ground.

The annual outing will attract members of First Presbyterian, Resurrection Lutheran, Grace United Methodist and Central United Methodist Churches.

Each family will pack a picnic lunch and activities begin with lunch. Competitive games, including Over-Under relay, sack race, lemon drop, egg toss, tug of war, three-legged race, balloon pop, shirt-cardboard race, skin the snake and shoe scramble get underway at 2 p. m. Ten teams will vie for the traveling trophy which was won by the Central Methodist Church last year.

After competitive games, the whole "mood" will change at 2:30 p. m. to "spirit-building games" and at 4:30 p. m. the entire group will join for a closing worship service which will end the day at 5 p. m.

Family Fun Day will feature brand new activities for the pre-school set this year, including a Pre-School Shack from 2 until 4:30 p. m. with activities just for the young set, supervised and creative.

In event of rain, the event will begin at the Community Center at 2 p. m.

"It's in the Cards" that tonight's Red Tulp fashion show-bridge benefit of Kings Mountain Hospital Auxiliary at the Woman's Club will be highly successful.

This is the statement of leaders of KMH who are readying for tonight's benefit, which gets underway at 7:30 p. m. at the Woman's Club on East Mountain St.

Alice Anne (Mrs. Charles) Adams is chairman of the event and all proceeds are earmarked for beautification of Kings Mountain Hospital grounds.

Fashion show co-ordinator for the event is Marilyn (Mrs. Henry) Neisler.

Mary Anne (Mrs. Paul) Hendricks, Jr., Kathy (Mrs. Clark) Mauney and Mrs. Sandi Rhea will model for three downtown firms - Belk, Fulton's and Plonk Brothers, showing the newest in fashions for spring and summerwear, featuring dresses, sportswear, and casual outfits.

Bridge, rook and canasta players are invited to provide their own cards and make up their own tables for tonight's event. Playing prizes will be awarded in the form of potted plants, which decorate the 20 tables throughout the clubhouse. Refreshments will also be served.

A Red Tulp watercolor by artist-in-residence Steve Greenway, of Cleveland Tech, sets the theme for the show. Tulips and other spring flowers will feature the decorations. The artist and his students will display some of their work in the foyer and lounge of the Woman's Club.

Admission is a $5 donation to hospital beautification.

The Kings Mountain Woman's Club is advertising its Sunday dinner event as a "Scrumptious Spring Sunday Dinner, on Sunday, Apr. 16, from noon to 2 p. m.

The menu will include ham and turkey with all the trimmings, homemade desserts and rolls.

Tickets can be purchased at $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for children 12 and under from any member of the Woman's Club or from Mrs. Ruby Baker, club president, at Kings Mountain Savings & Loan Association, West Mountain St.

Chairmen of the event are Mrs. George B. Thomasson and Mrs. Charles F. Mauney. They request that club members turn in monies collected for tickets and obtain additional tickets to sell from Mrs. Baker.

Proceeds are earmarked for community projects sponsored by the women's organization.

Rev. Hunt Conducts Revival

Rev. Johnny Hunt, pastor of Levonia Baptist Church of Gaffney, S. C., will be evangelist for revival services Apr. 9-15 at Piedmont Baptist Church.

Services will be at 7 p. m. each evening.

A nursery will be provided during the services.

Rev. Ansel Center is pastor of the church.
