

DEBUTANTES HONORED — Linda Williams, Libby Lackey and Nancy White, debutantes of the season, were honored at a western luncheon recently in Shelby. Miss White is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. White of Kings Mountain.

Western Barbecue Honors Three Debs

Miss Linda Williams, Miss Libby Lackey and Miss Nancy White, who made their debut at the Shelby Debutante Ball June 10th, were honored at a western barbecue luncheon recently at the Whisnant Corral on East Marion Street in Shelby. Mrs. Joe Whisnant and Mrs. Malcolm Brown were hostesses for the event. Carrying out the western theme, there were bales of hay, western saddles, and a barn on the front lawn of the Whisnant home, and western artifacts on the porch. Western objects nestled in a crushed bandana cloth centered the dining room table, bandana bows were tied to the chandelier and on the buffet were miniature burlap boats, 10 gallon hats and chaps. Red roses mingled with wild flowers and plants in calico pots were used to further decorate the party rooms. For lunch, guests enjoyed barbecue sandwiches and baked beans served in straw baskets, along with bandana napkins. Cowboy nut chewies were passed for dessert. Entertainment featured western songs by Mrs. Jerry Wease, who accompanied herself on guitar. Mrs. Wease was dressed in western attire, as were the hostesses and 20 debs, who attended the party. Favors to debs, were leather luggage tags and additional gifts were presented to the honored debutantes.

Miss Jackson Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Sandra Lynn Jackson, whose wedding to Harold Dean Eiters, takes place June 24th in Temple Baptist Church, was honored Saturday afternoon at a drop-in bridal shower in the Fellowship Hall of Grace United Methodist Church. Entertaining together were Mrs. Charles Hampton, her daughters, Miss Lisa Hampton and Mrs.

Ray Howell, Jr., and other bridal attendants in the wedding, Miss Cindy Hughes, Miss Debbie Anderson and Miss Gall Bell. Guests, who called from 3 until 5 p. m., showered the bride-to-be with linen gifts. Present as special guests were mothers of the engaged pair, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and Mrs. Zeb Harold Eiters. The wedding colors of yellow and white were beautifully combined in decorative details and refreshments. The bride's table overlaid with lace over yellow, held a central arrangement of daisies and yellow candles. Party pick-ups and punch were served from silver appointments. Miss Jackson was presented a daisy corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her blue party dress.

Debs Honored At Party

Shelby Elks Club was the setting for a morning party honoring eight debutantes of the season and their mothers. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Michael, Mrs. Gerald Lutz, Mrs. Cecil Wright, Mrs. Dwight Hord, Mrs. Gene Clay and Mrs. Max Boggs. Honored mothers and daughters were Mrs. Austin Lackey and Libby; Mrs. M. A. Fortenberry and Cindy; Mrs. Jacob Hicks and Tracy; Mrs. Robert Borders and Nancy; Mrs. Ben Poston and Laura; Mrs. Clifford Hamrick, Jr. and Mary Louise; Mrs. Frank Beam and Betsy; and Mrs. Jack White and Nancy. Each debutante received a strawberry blossom corsage and a ceramic debutante doll from the hostesses. Brunch was served in the Amber Room. The tables were centered with white wicker baskets filled with strawberry plants which were presented to the mothers. Fruit cups, eggs benedict, baked grits and pastries were served.
