

Vows Said At Midview Baptist

MISS SARAH VIRGINIA FINGER

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Preston Finger of Kings Mountain announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Virginia, to Carroll Henderson Hamrick, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Henderson Hamrick, Sr. of Shelby. The bride-to-be is a 1970 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, a 1974 graduate of Lenoir Rhyne College with B. A. degree and a 1975 graduate, with M.A., from Western Carolina University. She is Physical Education instructor at Crest Senior High School and coaches Girls Jayvee basketball and Girls varsity track. Mr. Hamrick is a 1971 graduate of Crest Senior High and is employed by Southern Screen Products in Shelby. The wedding will be an event of Oct. 7 at 4 p. m. in Saint Matthew's Lutheran Church.

Midview Baptist Church provided the setting June 8 for a 2 p. m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Margaret Ann Moss and Larry Wayne Austin.

The couple exchanged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Fred Wells.

The altar of the church was arranged with basket of rainbow-colored summer flowers with a kneeling bench at the center holding three tapers for the Unity Candle Service. Two five-branch candelabrum were at either side of the setting.

Mrs. Ethel Wells was pianist for the program of nuptial music.

J. B. Moss escorted his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white bridal satin and Rosepoint lace featuring V neckline and long, tapered sleeves enhanced by satin buttons. A ruffle at the hemline enhanced the long skirt which ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a satin headpiece and she carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations, greenery and baby's breath.

Miss Lisa Sanders attended the bride as maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a beige formal and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations and blue ribbon.

Patricia Moss, who was flower girl, wore a rainbow-colored formal and carried lace basket filled with white carnation petals.

Randy Hord was the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Ray Hord and Rodney Short, nephew of the bride, both of Kings Mountain.

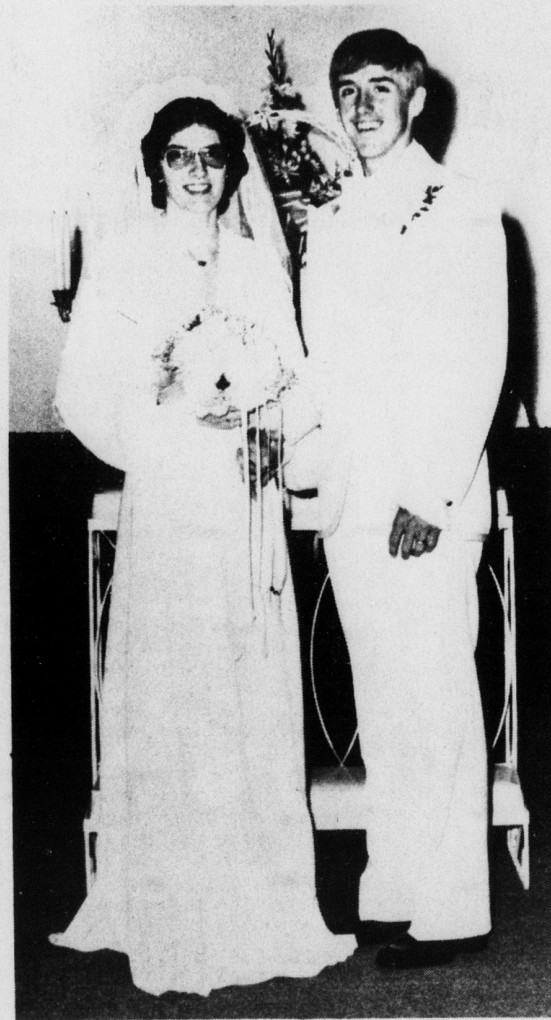

The bride and bridegroom cut a heart-shaped wedding cake after the ceremony at a reception hosted by the bride's mother in the church fellowship hall.

Yellow roses and white doves topped the bridal cake which was enhanced by tiny hearts. Barbara Sanders cut and served the wedding cake and Nancy Moss and Annette Short served punch.

For a trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. the bride wore a navy and white ensemble and lifted the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Drive Is A Success

The recent Kidney Foundation of North Carolina fund raising drive in Kings Mountain was a success, according to Mrs. Charles Blanton, chairman of the drive. The drive was sponsored by the Kings Mountain Woman's Club.

The drive, held March 17-19, produced a total of $300 in Kings Mountain. Money raised in the drive will be used for research, public and professional education programs, patient services and the Kidney Foundation's organ donation program. All money received in the drive is tax deductible by the donor.

The Kidney Foundation of North Carolina is an affiliate of the National Kidney Foundation with volunteer chapters across the state and a state office located in Chapel Hill. For more information, write to the Kidney Foundation of North Carolina, P. O. Box 2383, Chapel Hill, NC 27514, or call the state office at (919) 929-7181.

ENGAGED PAIR FETED

Miss Sharon Timms and Mike Plonk were honored

Lib Stewart

last Saturday evening at an informal cookout hosted by Miss Robin Dickey at her home on Phifer Rd.

Entertaining with Miss Dickey were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dickey, and her brother, Jim Dickey, Jr.

Champagne punch and appetizers were served in the Courtyard as guests arrived at 8 o'clock.

Present as special guests were parents of the bride-to-be, Gene and Mary Wright Timms, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plonk.

The 30 guests, including members of the bridal party, grilled hamburgers and hotdogs, which were served with all the trimmings. The buffet table was overlaid with bright yellow cloth and decorative with oil lamps and flowers. Small tables, where guests found their places, were covered with bright yellow, orange and green cloths and arranged with candles.

Miss Dickey took the occasion to present her wedding gift to the engaged pair.

IT'S A GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Myers of Park Drive announce the arrival of their second child, a daughter, Sharon Elaine, June 8, Cleveland Memorial Hospital, Shelby.

Sharon Elaine weighed six pounds, 12 ounces and is granddaughter of Mrs. Miles H. Myers and the late Mr. Myers and of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ledbetter, all of Kings Mountain.

Other member of the Myers family is four-year-old Scott Myers.

Mrs. Myers is the former Betty Ledbetter.

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin A. Ray of Kings Mountain celebrated their 30th (Pearl) wedding anniversary Sun., May 28 with a reception at Grace United Methodist Church.

The reception was given by the Ray children, Mrs. Donald Wells and Miss Becky Ray of Kings Mountain.

A three-tier cake decorated with white roses tinted yellow was the centerpiece on the table. Guests were served red punch, party sandwiches and party pick-ups.

Out of town guests attending the 3-5 p. m. reception were from Charlotte, Shelby, Mooresboro, Cherryville and Gastonia and York and Columbia, S. C.

Special Singing Service

A special singing service is scheduled Sat., June 17 at 7 p. m. at Pathway Baptist Mission, Parkdale Cir., Kings Mountain. The service will feature The Sunny Side Gospel Singers, The Shope Gospel Singers and the Jackson Family. James Hamrick, pastor, invites the public to attend.
