

Vows Exchanged In Gaffney

Miss Cynthia Diane Black became the bride of Jackie Lee Horne Saturday in a 7:30 p.m. wedding in Gaffney, S.C. at the home of Probate Judge W.R. Douglas.

For her marriage the bride chose a street-length white jacket dress. Accompanying the couple were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Black of the Dixon Community, the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edward Horne of Shelby, the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Horne, Sr. of Gaffney, S.C. and the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Teresa Horne of Gaffney.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a cakecutting at their home. The white and yellow-decorated cake was topped with double hearts and centered the dining room table. Cake and coffee were served to members of the immediate families.

The newlyweds are at home on Shelby Rd.

Mrs. Horne attended Kings Mountain Senior High School. Mr. Horne is a graduate of Crest High School and is employed by Kings Mountain Truck Plaza on Dixon Road.

Loretta Owens' Home A Place To Relax

decorated in green and white with mint green beading separating the two rooms. Mint wallpaper framed in white to look like pictures are conversation pieces on the walls of the den. Wallpaper and white panelling are combined effectively in the bedroom where Loretta has painted "love" on the wall and used green frogs, green pictures, and other decor to carry out the refreshing color theme. The green and white ruffled spread and pillow shams and green carpet pick up the color theme. The adjoining den is carpeted in tones of green, gold and brown. Color is emphasized in the bath wallpaper with butterflies used on tile and in the bottom of the tub.

Beige siding has given a lift to the once all-white exterior of the frame house which is enhanced by a full deck and a large fenced-in back yard.

Loretta Owens, who has worked at Peggy's Restaurant since 1972, admits that she doesn't do much cooking at home. Like all her sisters, she enjoys cooking and serving home-cooked meals that are the nearest thing to the country cooking her mother liked to do.

When she locks up the store after a day in the kitchen, she wants to go home, an ideal spot to prop her feet and relax.

Gospel Choir Looking Now For New Members

The Cleveland County Community Gospel Choir is having a membership drive beginning Sat., June 9. Our goal is to have at least 20 new members.

Anyone of any age, race, sex, or denomination, who enjoys singing praises to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, may join this group. It is not our intention to take you away from your regular church duties, but to add to your work for the lord. The choir is always glad to sing when one of its members is having a program at their church.

The choir will have rehearsal Saturday at 8 p.m. at New Ellis Chapel Baptist Church in Shelby. All persons wishing to join should be at this rehearsal.

"Our purpose is to serve the community in any way it needs us. Therefore we need your prayers, support, and membership," said Kathy Haywood, secretary, of Kings Mountain.

JULIA CAROLYN RATTERREE

ENGAGED—Mrs. James G. Ratterree of Rutherfordton announces the engagement of her daughter, Julia Carolyn, to Joseph Frank Damore, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Damore of Warren, Ohio. Miss Ratterree is also the daughter of the late Lt. Colonel Ratterree and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bright D. Ratterree of Kings Mountain. A graduate of Furman University and the University of Georgia with a Master's Degree in Social Work, Miss Ratterree is employed as a Clinical Social Worker with the Greenville Hospital System in Greenville, South Carolina. Mr. Damore is a graduate of Thiel College and the Ohio State University with a Master's Degree in Hospital Administration. He is Associate Administrator of the Greenville Hospital Center. A September first wedding is planned in Greenville, South Carolina.
