(Sallie Cornwell)

Vows Said In Shelby

Pleasant Hill Baptist Church of Shelby was the setting Saturday for a 2 p.m. exchange of vows uniting Miss Sallie Catherine Cornwell of Kings Mountain and Ronnie Brady Cheek of Roaring River, N.C.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Ned Buckner, minister of the church.

Mrs. Steve Tolbert of Shelby was organist for the program of wedding music and Miss Theresa Parker of Winston Salem was vocal soloist.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and enhanced with lighted candelabrum and blue flowers in altar baskets.

Frank W. Cornwell escorted his daughter to altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of dacron polyester organza trimmed in Chantilly lace with attached Chapel train. The empire waistline and Princess Ann neckline were embellished with Chantilly lace and seed pearls. The sheer, bouffant sleeves and fitted cuffs of matching Chantilly lace. The Camelot cap of Chantilly lace and seed pearls was fitted with a bridal illusion veil which extended Chapel length. She carried a white Bible topped with miniature red roses and baby's breath streamers.

Mrs. Bill Paugh of Shelby, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Walter Campbell of Charlotte, sister of the bride, Miss Debbie Cheek of Roaring River, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Pam Gullede of High Point and Mrs. John Shirah of West Columbia, S.C.

All the attendants wore long formals of blue floral crepe polyester featuring sleeveless bodices with chiffon collars. They carried single long-stemmed mums.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Tonya Campbell of Charlotte, the bride's

On Wedding Trip To Williamsburg

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Nathan Reed, who were wed Saturday in a garden wedding in Pendleton, are on a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va. and the Outer Banks of North Carolina. Afterwards, they will be at home in Charlotte.

Miss Jill Lynette Fisher became Dr. Reed's bride in a 6 p.m. garden wedding at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Edgar Fisher, in Pendleton, N.C.

Rev. Randolph Phillips heard the exchange of vows in the double-ring ceremony.

William Raynor was organist for the program of nuptial music and Stephen Byrum, vocalist, sang the benedictional "Wedding Prayer."

A white gazebo in a Victorian garden setting was background for the exchange of vows. A garden reception, in which the yellow and white wedding motif was featured, followed the ceremony.

Given in marriage her parents, the bride wore a formal-length antique embroidered wedding gown featuring a Victorian lace chapel length train. The gown was enhanced by a Victorian laced yoke and sleeves and a double lace ruffle enhanced the hem and bodice. She wore a picture hat of matching lace and carried a Victorian lace parasol filled with white roses and baby's breath.

She also wore pearl earrings and a gold bead necklace, gifts of the bridegroom.

Miss Joan Fisher of Durham attended her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. James Gresham of Raleigh, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Gail Gambrell of Myrtle Beach, S.C., Miss Nancy Leavitt of Wadesboro, Miss Jeannie Jenkins of Pendleton and Miss Janie Hardin of Raleigh.

All the attendants wore white organza gowns featuring shirred tiered skirts and insert waistbands. Double ruffle collars enhanced the gowns. They wore white gloves and carried white ruffle parasols. Best man for the bridegroom was his father, Dr. Nathan H. Reed of Kings Mountain.

Groomsmen were John David Reed, brother of the bridegroom; Dr. Grady Howard, Jr. and Michael McDaniel, all of Kings Mountain; Guy Fisher, Jr. of Pendleton, brother of the bride; Dr. William Haden of Chapel Hill, David Hord of China Grove, and William Carter of Sunbury, N.C.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Edgar Fisher of Pendleton, is a 1978 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a B.A. degree in Early Childhood Education. She was formerly a Kindergarten teacher at Hester's Creative Schools in Greensboro.

Dr. and Mrs. Nathan H. Reed of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom who is a 1975 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Epsilon Delta honorary society, and Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity. He is a 1979 graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Medicine and will begin his residency at Charlotte
