

Cookes Honeymoon In Hawaii

LYNN RENE DANIELS

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Daniels of Gastonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Lynn Rene, to Danny Kaye Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ray Wright of Kings Mountain. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Ashbrook High School of Gastonia and attended Gaston College. She is employed by Gabby's of Gastonia. The bridegroom-to-be was graduated from Sylacauga, Ala. High School and Auburn University, Alabama and is vice-president of Jim Wright Corporation of Kings Mountain. The wedding will take place June 17th at 3 p.m. at Kings Mountain Church of God.

Bride-Elect Feted At Drop-In

Miss Rene Daniels, Gastonia bride-elect of Danny Wright of Kings Mountain, was honored last Sunday afternoon at a bridal drop-in party at the home of her future parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wright. Entertaining together were Mrs. Ruth Hughes, Mrs. Margaret Patterson and Mrs. Kathy Wright. Receiving with the bride-to-be were her mother, Mrs. Herman Daniels of Gastonia; her future mother-in-law, Mrs. James R. Wright; and the bridegroom-to-be's grandmother, Mrs. Doris Short. The 22 guests showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous household gifts. Overlaid with lace over green, the bride's table was centered with an arrangement of yellow flowers and candles. Punch was served from a silver punch bowl by Mrs. Teresa Bookout of Gastonia and party pickups were served from crystal appointments. The green and yellow motif was featured in decorative details. Upon her arrival, Miss Daniels was presented a corsage of daisies to pin to the shoulder of her cranberry party dress. The Daniels-Wright wedding will take place June 17th at 3 p.m. in Kings Mountain Church of God on Parker St.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yates Cooke, Jr., who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Hawaii and afterwards will be at home at 5854 F-2 Monroe Road in Charlotte.

Miss Robin Katherine Lane of Kings Mountain became Mr. Cooke's bride in a 2 p.m. exchange of vows in Gastonia's St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Dr. W.W. Sneed officiated at the ceremony for which organ music was provided by Miss Bonnie McIntosh.

White gladioli, snapdragons and magnolia leaves decorated the altar.

Richard Charles Lane of Kings Mountain escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of Chantilly lace bordered in pearls. The dress was enhanced by a cathedral length train. She wore a picture hat of matching Chantilly lace and pearls with waist length veil and carried her mother's prayer book topped with a bouquet of white baby roses.

Miss Phyllis Ketner of Charlotte attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Leolye Ann Lane of Kings Mountain, sister of the bride; Miss Regina Tyner of Myrtle Beach, S.C. and Mrs. Timothy Youell of Greenville, S.C. Elizabeth Carroll of Charlotte, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

All the attendants wore long formals of yellow chiffon with daisies embroidered on the bodices. They wore matching capes of yellow chiffon and carried yellow and white nosegays.

Best man was Robert E. Jones of Charlotte.

Groomsmen were Michael Howard, Stephen Caldwell, and Richard Nelson, all of Charlotte.

The bride's mother chose a formal gown of shades of orange chiffon with a corsage of white baby roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a long formal of beige crepe and shoulder corsage of white baby roses.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a champagne reception in the church fellowship hall where the wedding colors of yellow and green featured the decorations. Overlaid with white over yellow, the refreshment tables held a champagne fountain and tiered wedding cake iced in yellow flowers. Yellow candles in silver candelabra and summer flowers decorated the tables.

For a wedding trip the bride chose a beige floral dress with linen jacket and the roses from her bridal bouquet.
