

KM Jaycees Meet

The Kings Mountain Jaycees held their bimonthly meeting June 4th at the Kings Mountain Motor Inn.

Recognition was made of the officers who attended the North Carolina Jaycees Local Officers Leadership College and each were presented a diploma of graduation.

Also recognized were Alvin Moretz, Mike Neely and Allan Propst who will attend the United States National Jaycees Convention in Nashville, Tenn.

Cliff Whitfield received a certificate of appreciation for his chairmanship of the Jaycee car wash and he announced another community car wash planned for June 23rd. Larry Hamrick, Jr. discussed the upcoming Jaycee yard sale which will be chaired by Carl "Herbie" Morrow. This event will be held uptown on June 30th in coordination with a sidewalk sale by local merchants.

Chairman Jim Tate recognized the men who had completed the Jaycee Personal Dynamics course and presented each of them with a certificate. Tate then received a certificate of appreciation from internal vice president Allan Propst for his outstanding leadership.
