MR. AND MRS. NELSON EARL MORRIS ...celebrate Golden Wedding Day

Morrisses Celebrate Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Earl Morris celebrated their Golden Wedding Day Sunday at an anniversary reception hosted by their children and grandchildren at Bethlehem Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

Entertaining together were Mr. and Mrs. Bill McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Morris, all of Kings Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Huskey of Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Morris, brother and sister-in-law of Earl Morris, greeted arriving callers and assisting in serving were Mrs. Clyde McDaniel, Mrs. Edith Reynolds, Mrs. Sam Murphy, Mrs. Charles Herndon, Mrs. Ralph Gorth, Mrs. Hayes Ledford and Miss Jan Goforth. Debbie Newton and Mrs. Tim Echols presided at the gift table and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morris Miss Suzie McDaniel, granddaughter of the honored pair, presided at the register.

The Candelight and gold motif was featured beautifully in decorative details and refreshments. Overlaid with candelight ruffled round lace tablecloth, the refreshment table held a fourtiered anniversary cake decorated in gold flowers enhanced with gold posts and gold bells. The cake was topped with a gold 50.

Ruffled lace also covered the long serving table which was centered by a brass footed crystal teardrop container holding yellow snapdragons and gold daisies. Cutglass punch bowls were at each end of the table. Spiced pineapple and golden punch were served with party pickups.

Crystal and brass trays and compotes completed the appointments.

Magnolia leaves and brass candlesticks were used throughout the Fellowship Hall. Buds decorated each window of the reception hall. Ferns were arranged in tall gold cupid on gold pedestals throughout the room.

Mrs. Morris, the former Eva Carter of Jackson Springs, N.C., wore a long-sleeved blue formal and a white yellow-throated orchid.

Mr. Morris is a Kings Mountain native and retired scrap metal dealer. The family is active in Bethlehem Baptist Church.

A large number of friends and relatives called between 3 and 5 p.m.

Grace Church To Sponsor Yard Sale

Grace United Methodist Church will sponsor a big bake sale Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. in the church fellowship hall. Homemade cakes and pies will be featured. All proceeds are earmarked for the parsonage building fund.

Bridal Couple Honored

Miss Jill Fisher and Charles Reed, whose wedding took place June 9th in a garden ceremony in Pendleton, were honored recently at a patio-party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Grady Howard, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thomason and Mr. and Mrs. S.R. Suber, Jr.

The party for 22 guests was held at the Suber home on Phifer road. Appertifs were served in the Cabana where the bridal couple were toasted. Miss Fisher was presented a bell corsage and serving pieces in her china pattern from the host couples.

Other guests found their places at two tables set up around the poolside and steaks with all the trimmings were served.

After supper, disco music and dancing were enjoyed.

Present as special guests were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Dr. and Mrs. N.H. Reed.
