KM Youths Killed In Saturday Wreck

Two Kings Mountain youths were killed early Saturday morning in an automobile accident on I-85 near the Gaston-Cleveland County line.

Dead on arrival at Gaston Memorial Hospital were Roy McArthur Lewis Jr., 18, of 320 Amherst Drive, and David Bryan "Toasty" Hardin, 19, of Route 5, Kings Mountain.

They were passengers in a car driven by Kevin Shawn Bumgardner, 19, of Kings Mountain.

Bumgardner was admitted to Kings Mountain Hospital. He has since been released.

The accident occurred about 3:15 a.m. According to the wreck report filed by Trooper Don Lee of the N.C. Highway Patrol, the car driven by Bumgardner was traveling south at a high rate of speed when it came upon a tractor trailer driven by Walter Johnson Griffin, 36, of Monroe. Bumgardner moved into the right lane and the truck began to move over into the right lane. Bumgardner then ran into the crash cushion and then into a construction barrier. His car came off the construction barrier into the path of the truck, which knocked the car back into the construction barrier.

Lee estimated damages to the car, truck and highway structures at $10,000.

Lee said Lewis and Hardin were pinned in the vehicle for 20 to 30 minutes. The wreck blocked southbound traffic for about an hour.

Charges are pending further investigation.

The tragedy was the second in less than a year for the family of Roy Lewis. His younger brother, Rod, was one of three youths who died in a barn fire near Kings Mountain Junior High School on April 6, 1981.

Hardin was the son of John Webster and Jackie Dixon Hardin of Bell Road. He was a 1981 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and was employed by Wade Ford.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are one brother, John Scott Hardin of Charleston, S.C.; one sister, Jacquelyn Rene "Beanie" Hardin of Kings Mountain; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hardin of Kings Mountain; and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. E.D. Dixon of Kings Mountain.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 4 p.m. at Masters Funeral Home Chapel by the Rev. Eugene Land. Burial was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Funeral services for Lewis were conducted Monday morning at Masters Funeral Home Chapel by the Rev. Allen McKinney.

Graveside services were held at 2 p.m. at the Old Nebo Cemetery in Marion.

He was a 1981 graduate of Kings Mountain High School and was employed by Allied Plastics of Gastonia.

Survivors include his father, Roy Lewis Sr. of Marion; his mother Iris Pyatt McMahan of Kings Mountain; stepfather, Gerald McMahan of Kings Mountain; one brother, Grant McMahan of Kings Mountain; one sister, Sherry Lewis of Kings Mountain; and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Lewis of Marion.

Funeral Service Today For Clyde Ervin Conner

Clyde Ervin Conner, 56, of 703 West King Street, co-founder of C&C Scrap Iron and Metal of Kings Mountain, died at 5:30 a.m. Tuesday at Kings Mountain Hospital.

A Kings Mountain native, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ervin Conner of Kings Mountain. He was a member of First Baptist Church.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 3 p.m. at First Baptist Church by the Rev. Richard Plyler and the Rev.

Allen Jolly. Burial will be in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are his wife, Virl Allen Conner; one son, Dennis Ervin Conner of Kings Mountain; one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth (Vickie) Kuenzli of Greenville, S.C.; one brother, John W. Conner of Grover; two sisters, Mrs. Donald (Garnell) Bryant of Bessemer City and Mrs. Robert (Betty) Payne of Kings Mountain; and four grandsons.

Funeral Service Held For Freno Kennedy, 59

Freno Kennedy, 59, of 114 Benfield Road, a well-known Kings Mountain businessman, died Monday at 1:30 p.m. at Kings Mountain Hospital after several weeks illness.

A native of Gaston County, he was the son of the late Henry James and Bobbie Lee Long Kennedy.

For many years, he was a partner with James Leigh in the Union 76 station on King Street, and in more recent years was a partner with Leigh in Leigh and Kennedy Auto Service.

He was a member and deacon at Piedmont Baptist Church and was a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Ruby Hollifield Kennedy; one daughter, Mrs. Danny (Luann) Bryant of Kings Mountain; one brother, Bill Kennedy of Kings Mountain; and three sisters, Mrs. R.N. (Martha) Guthrie of Shelby, Mrs. Harold (Iva) Belk of Charlotte and Mrs. Sadie Splawn of Spartanburg.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 p.m. Wednesday at Piedmont Baptist Church by the Rev. James Green. Burial was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

of North, Tracy Morrison of Grover, Dale Greene of East, Kenney Potter of Central, Shan Conner of West and Ashley Champion of Bethware.

Jennifer Bradley Wins District Spelling Bee

Jennifer Bradley, eighth grader at Kings Mountain Junior High School, correctly spelled "nodule" and "facsimile" to win the annual Kings Mountain District Schools Spelling Bee Monday at the Superintendent's Office.

Miss Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bradley of 503 Garrison Drive, will represent the school system in the regional Spelling Bee, sponsored by the Charlotte Observer, April 23 at the Observer Auditorium.

The winner of the Observer Bee will advance to the National Spelling Bee in June in Washington, D.C.

Miss Bradley survived six rounds of spelling with Central Middle School student Kenney Potter after students from the five elementary schools in the district dropped out.

Potter, a sixth grader and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Potter of 308 West Mountain Street, missed "nodule". According to the rules, Miss Bradley then had to spell that word, and one additional word, which was "facsimile".

Lynne Mauney served as pronouncer. Judges were Sara Griffin, librarian at Kings Mountain High School, Jackie Lavender, assistant principal at Kings Mountain High School, and C.A. Allison, principal at North Elementary School.

Representing the elementary schools were Floyd O'Dale "Dale" Greene, East; Candi Black, North; Tracy Morrison, Grover; Ashley Champion, Bethware; and Michel Shan Conner, West.

KIWANIS CLUB

Rick Sloan, an employee of Sulzer Brothers, will be guest speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday night. Next week's speaker will be Mary Carbo, librarian at Mauney Memorial Library.

Sunrise Service Set

Plans for the annual community Easter sunrise service have been completed by members of the Kings Mountain Ministerial Association, the sponsoring group. The special service this year, as in many previous years, will be held in the Veterans Memorial Park of Mountain Rest Cemetery at 6 A.M., April 11.

The Rev. William H. Tyson, pastor of Boyce Memorial A.R.P. Church, will bring the sermon. A special message in song will be presented by the choir of the First Wesleyan Church.

Others participating will be the Rev. Allen Jolley, who will give the welcome and lead in congregational singing; the Rev. Sidney Lanier of El Bethel United Methodist Church will offer the invocation, and the Rev. Roger Webb, pastor of Westover Baptist Church is to lead in the responsive reading of the Scriptures. The Rev. Oscar Stalcup of the Foursquare Gospel Church will lead in the morning prayer, and the benediction is to be offered by the Rev. L.K. Fannin, minister of the Church of the Nazarene.

The special services committee of the ministerial association, which planned the program, is composed of the Rev. Ivan Stephens of Central United Methodist Church, the Rev. Leroy Cox of East Gold Wesleyan Church, the Rev. Kenneth R. Looney of the Kings Mountain Church of God, and the Rev. J.C. Goare of Kings Mountain Baptist Church.

These and the other ministers of the association are hoping to see a large attendance at the service which they believe will be an inspiring way to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. They extend a cordial invitation to everyone in of the area.
