

Scholarship Banquet Set

The Lutz-Yelton Foundation's Annual Scholarship Banquet is scheduled for May 10th at the Convocation Center on the Campus of Gardner-Webb College, Lutz-Yelton Foundation president, Jack Lutz, announced today. This is the fifth year of the Lutz-Yelton Scholarship program and this year includes Kings Mountain Senior High School for the first time. Lutz said, "Our hope to broaden the base of the foundation and the scholarship program is really being realized now because we've had an opportunity to increase over coverage and to include the Kings Mountain Senior High School. We will be granting at total of $12,000.00 in Scholarship Aid. This year's aid will assist the educational future of nine young men and women in a three county area," Lutz added.

The Banquet this year will have as its keynote speaker, Dan Moore, Jr. Moore, a former mayor of Boiling Springs, a former teacher of Boiling Springs Junior College, now Gardner-Webb College, is a graduate of

DAN MOORE

Furman University, received a masters degree from Appalachian State University and studied at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. A former principal of Shelby Senior High School, Moore is presently Athletic Director at Gardner-Webb College and Director of Broyhill Academy. Lutz said he was pleased to announce that Moore that Moore would be the keynote speaker "I've always had a great deal of respect and admiration for Dan Moore because of his leadership in education. On the high school level and college level he has been a tremendous asset to young people particularly in this region of North Carolina."

Regarding the Foundation's annual giving to young people to further their education, Lutz said, "Since the Lutz-Yelton Foundation's conception nine years ago, the directors have always felt a strong need to invest the foundation's money very wisely. We certainly think there is no better way to invest wisely than in a scholarship program. We feel strongly an investment in the future of young men and women seeking a better education is indeed a wise investment, and again we are delighted we are able to broaden the base of the scholarship program this year." By this fall, the Lutz-Yelton Foundation will be assisting twenty one young men and women who will be attending the college of their choice.

Last Year's Scholarship Winners were: Beverly Daine Helton, East Rutherford High School; Jessie Craig Frye, Chase High School; Shirley Ruth Conner, Rutherford-Spindale Central High; Mark L. Edwards, Polk Central High School; Sharee Muench, Shelby High School; Wiley Smith, Jr., Shelby High School; Angela Shirl McMurry, Burns High School; Amy Melinda Harris, Crest High School.

The Foundation scholarship program and its banquet is a much awaited event during the year. It is attended annually by some 250 people, educators, civic leaders, along with the school officials, all the recipients of the scholarships, and their parents. The awards banquet will have in addition to other activities, special music provided by the senior class members of the choral ensemble of the Fine Arts Department at Gardner-Webb College under the direction of Dr. George Cribb.

Support for the Foundation comes from several individuals and corporations. The corporations are Lutz-Yelton Oil Co., Inc., Space Petroleum, Inc., L&R Oil Co., Inc., Shelby Oil Co., Inc., Consolidated Oils, Inc., Ladd-Hamrick Oil Co., Inc., Shelby Investment Co., Inc., and Western Petroleum Service Inc. according to Lutz.

GET TWO TILLERS FOR THE PRICE OF ONE

The SNAPPER revolutionary rear tine tiller. It's the one tiller that does the job of two. Because it's a simple matter to convert from forward to reverse tine rotation tilling, it's like getting two tillers for the price of one. Plus SNAPPER's exclusive friction drive, multiple speed transmission makes this one of the smoothest driving tillers to be found anywhere.

Gardening is made easy with this SNAPPER tiller. It even breaks new ground with ease. In fact, it does everything rear tine tillers have been noted for doing in the past, but this tiller is a revolutionary improvement when it comes to breaking sodded and vegetated ground.

So before you buy any other, you really owe it to yourself to put SNAPPER's rear tine tiller to the test.

Drop by your SNAPPER dealer today. He'll show you how this tiller is like getting two for the price of one.
