Carroll, Scott Dalton, Jeff Reynolds and Ryan Wilson, all of Forest City.

The bride wore a gown of Candlelight satin. The fitted bodice of English net overlaid with Alencon lace motifs re-embroidered with pearls featured a Queen Anne neckline and covered buttons down the back of the dress. The long fitted sleeves were caught at the wrist with tiny covered buttons that ended in a point over the hand. The A-line skirt extended from the natural waist to the deep border hemline of Alencon lace that flowed into a semi-Cathedral train.

The bride's veil heirloom of silk candlelight illusion attached to a Juliet cap and covered with pearls and Alencon lace was edged with Alencon lace and pearls that extended into a walking length train. She carried a cascade of candlelight roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at Moonham Library. It was hosted by the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Scism of Spindale greeted guests.

The bride's table was skirted with candlelight cloth and overlaid with candlelight lace. A center arrangement of lavender and ivory flowers and ivory candles decorated the table. Silver appointments were used in serving sausage balls, decorated finger sandwiches, cheeses rosettes, cream filled pastries, strawberry delights, mints and nuts. Punch was served from a silver punch bowl surrounded with a garland of greenery. A similar cloth was used on a round table which held the five-tiered wedding cake decorated with lavender flowers and greenery and topped with candlelight satin wedding bells and silk flowers.

Following a wedding trip to North Myrtle Beach, S.C., the couple will live on McDade Road in Forest City.
