

Judy Wilson Attends Seminar In Dallas, Texas

DALLAS, TEXAS—Judy Wilson of Kings Mountain, an independent beauty consultant

Mrs. Eaker's Second Book Almost Ready

Mrs. Lorena S. Eaker, author of the Shoe Cobbler's Kin, an Eaker Family History is announcing the near completion of Volume two. Typing of this manuscript will begin in November 1983 and completion is expected by April 1984.

This is a continuation of Volume One published in 1976 and will contain only additional and corrected material not included there.

This record pertains to Peter Ecker Eaker, Sr. and his two sons, Christian b.1722 and Peter, Jr. b. 1724-5, who arrived at Philadelphia on Ship Lydia in Sept. 1741, remained at Muddy Creek, Conestoga Twp, Lancaster Co., PA until 1748-50 when they removed to Beaver Dam and Indian Creeks near the town of Crouse, NC. Descendants have since scattered to the four winds.

The author will continue to accept material, but only that which arrives by the time that particular lineage is typed will be included. Anyone having material to submit or interested in purchasing a copy of Volume One (which is again available) should write to Mrs. Eaker at Route 5 Box 464A, Danville, VA 24540. Prepublication offers for Volume 2 will be made early 1984.

Hambright Reunion Set

The Col. Frederick Hambright Family will hold their 37th annual reunion at The Rescue Squad Building, Grover, on Sunday October 9 with a basket lunch at 1 p.m. Supplies and beverages will be provided.

Guided tours will leave the lobby of the Holiday Inn in Kings Mountain at 1:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon for the benefit of those who wish to learn more about their heritage.

All Hambright descendants and their guests are invited to join in this event. Anyone having questions should call Myers T. Hambright, President, at 704-739-3893 or write the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Odis C. Eaker, P.O. Box 904, Danville, VA 24543.

Most topaz is white or blue. The famed golden variety is actually very rare.

with Dallas-based Mary Kay Cosmetics, Inc., has just returned from the company's 20th anniversary Seminar held at Dallas Convention Center. While in Dallas, she was a recipient of awards in her unit and in her area for her sales performance during 1982-1983.

This year's Seminar was entitled "Celebrate" in honor of the company's 20th anniversary.

Founder and board chairman Mary Kay Ash opened her direct sales cosmetic company in September, 1963. The $4 million Seminar is an annual extravaganza comprising three days of training, product education and motivation for the 23,000 Mary Kay representatives who attend.

Daily workshops on product knowledge, business management and sales techniques were taught by top sales directors from Mary Kay's 200,000-member sales force. An upbeat, New York-style fashion show presented the latest in fall fashions for both men and women. A professional makeup artist also performed makeovers featuring Mary Kay's new fall colors and various beauty tips.

Highlighting Seminar was

Awards Night—a combination of the Academy Awards, the Miss America Pageant and a Broadway opening. On this evening, Mary Kay personally crowned and congratulated the 1983 "Queens" and their courts, awarding fur coats, diamond rings, luxurious cruises and the famous pink Cadillacs and Buick Regals to the company's highest achievers.

Mrs. Wilson joined Mary Kay Cosmetics in 1978. She is married to Robert Lee Wilson and they have two children.

Mary Kay Cosmetics, Inc. is an international manufacturer and distributor of a premium line of skin, hair and body care products, cosmetics, toiletries and fragrances.
