

Red, White And Blue Days

Kings Mountain elementary school students learned new patriotic songs and "had a good time" during the annual observance of Patriotic Month during February.

The month's celebration was capped off during the last week of February with observance of Red, White and Blue Day at all five schools.

Shirley Austin, music teacher for Grover, East, West, Bethware and North schools, led the students in singing about Abe Lincoln, George Washington, and other American heroes, and saluting the branches of the military.

All youngsters, teachers and school staffs dressed in red, white and blue on their designated days.

Students at Bethware surprised Mrs. Austin on her birthday with several gifts, including a birthday cake, sweater and red, white and blue corsage.

BETHWARE RED, WHITE, BLUE PROGRAM - Kindergarten students took the spotlight during this portion of Bethware's Red, White and Blue Day activities. Students learned several new songs during the month of February, which was designated as patriotic month in all Kings Mountain elementary schools.

PLEDGE TO FLAG - A Pledge of Allegiance to the American flag got Red, White and Blue Day festivities underway at West Elementary School in Kings Mountain.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE - Fifth graders at North Elementary School in Kings Mountain say the Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. flag to open their Red, White and Blue Day activities in the school auditorium.

SINGING ABOUT GEORGE - Kindergarten students at Grover School sing about first President George Washington during Red, White and Blue Day.

SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY - Shirley Austin, music teacher for all five Kings Mountain District elementary schools, was surprised with a cake and other gifts on her birthday and on Bethware's celebration of Red, White and Blue Day.

TEACHERS JOIN FUN - Teachers at East Elementary School joined in the singing of patriotic songs during the school's Red, White and Blue Day activities.
