

County Fair To Have Talent Contest

WORKING IN THE RAIN - City employees Walt Ollis, Jim Downey and Mayor John Henry Moss, left to right, are at work on Bridges Drive during Saturday's downpour and flooding conditions which resulted in damage to five houses on the street.

The Annual Youth Talent Contest for boys and girls 10-21 years of age will be held at the Cleveland County Fair again this year. It is open to young people of Cleveland and Contiguous Counties.

Talent will be judged in the following categories: Vocal Solo-Female, Vocal Solo-Male, Vocal Groups, Instrumental Solo, Dance Solo, Dance Group, Dance Novelty Solo and Dance Novelty Group.

Entry forms are available at the Fair Office, Cleveland Technical College and the public schools. Entry deadline is September 10. Prizes will be awarded by Jenkins Foods. For additional information call Mrs. Dot Roark's office at Cleveland Technical College 484-4000, or Henry Dameron at the Fair Office 487-0651.

According to Henry Dameron, the Band/Instrumental Groups and the Variety Categories were eliminated this year because of difficulties of setting up and taking down band and variety equipment within the allotted time. Dameron said, "Efforts will be made to schedule the bands and variety groups on the Performing Arts Stage at various times during the fair. Those interested should call the Fair Office."
