AROUND THE

FROM PAGE ONE — of our enemies, while we failed to rally to their support with the ballot, our only effective means of sustaining them.

It is very heartening, at this time, that we have a President who has the courage to stand by the recommendations made in a report by a competent committee which spent many months studying facts, assimilating data and arriving at the opinions and conclusions contained in the report to the President. In the opinion of this writer, nothing has occurred within the last 50 years, by any Presidential recommendation, that even approaches in importance, the concept of and stand upon human and civil rights as shown by the committee and President Truman.

It is high time for Negroes to ignore traditional party lines and vote into office men of opinions and men with the will to act in the interest of the expansion of brotherhood and equality among men. While the world today staggers under the impact of national unrest and great international confusion, it is indeed refreshing to find a leader of a great nation

Holds Holy Week Service
Rev. Booker T. Medford, and Mrs. Muriel Dyer, both of Washington, D. C. and son and granddaughter of the writer, Dr. H. T. Medford, also of Washington, were engaged to hold the Holy Week service at Harris Memorial A. M. E. Zion Church, Bristol, Va. It is reported reliably that the services were largely attended and enjoyed. Many rededicated themselves to the church, and there were some conversions. Rev. Medford is considered by many as one of the coming young ministers of the A. M. E. Zion Church and Mrs. Dyer, a sweet and effective soloist of the classics as well as of Gospel songs. When the week's service ended, the pastor of the church, Rev. J. Julian Robinson and members were unanimous in praise of the minister and Mrs. Dyer.

Visiting Friends
Dr. and Mrs. Algernon Hiliary Fisher of North Carolina were pleasing visitors at the office of The Missionary Secretary during the month of March. Dr. Fisher is the highly successful pastor of Williams Chapel A. M. E. Zion Church, Williamston, N. C. Mrs. Fisher is a teacher in the public school system in Elizabeth City, N. C. Dr. Fisher recently preached the Anniversary sermon of the 75th Anniversary of the founding of the Harris A. M. E. Zion Church, Harrisburg, Pa. It will be remembered that during Dr. Fisher's administration and pastorate of the above named church, he was successful in liquidating a 20 year heavy debt on the church and parsonage in 18 months. Both he and Mrs. Fisher were warmly received by the citizens of Harrisburg. Rev. Fisher is the son of Dr. R. Farley Fisher, General Secretary of the A. M. E. Zion Church. Accompanying Dr. and Mrs. Fisher on the motor trip to Harrisburg were Dr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Griffin of Elizabeth City, N. C. Dr. Griffin is the popular pastor of the St. Johns Baptist Church, Columbia, N. C. Mrs. Griffin is a nurse in the office of a local physician.

Washington, one of our greatest Americans, still live is evidenced by the fact that one of the graduates during this administration, Mrs. P. V. Waddell, of Chesnee, S. C. stresses industrial education and self help. Mrs. Waddell is also interested in the development of the Negro race and has been a devout advocate of the HARRIS HERALD and will do more in the future. More about Mrs. Waddell and her progressive husband, Dr. Waddell, in another issue.

Attention was called to the fact in our last issue that three Negroes were called for jury service in Laurel, Miss. The first ones to serve in that town for forty years. "Strange as it seems" this writer has never known about any Negro serving on the jury in Rutherford county, a reminder that after all, many Negroes in Mississippi are doing better than we are.

CLYDE CAMP, SUPERINTENDENT of Jerusalem Sunday School is not only a valuable and dependable church worker, but he is also doing a fine job toward creating interest in THE HARRIS HERALD and everything for the uplift of Negroes in Western North Carolina.

Put the smallest-size white snaps on the two bottom corners of curtains also fasten two more about a third of the way up the curtain. Then when the windows are open at night, or for airing the room, the curtains can be "snapped together" and will not get wet or soiled.

LET'S LEAVE OUR FORESTS GREEN AND GROWING

PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Last year forest fires destroyed enough trees of saw-timber size to build 86,000 five-room houses, and enough smaller trees to provide a year's supply of newsprint for every paper in America.

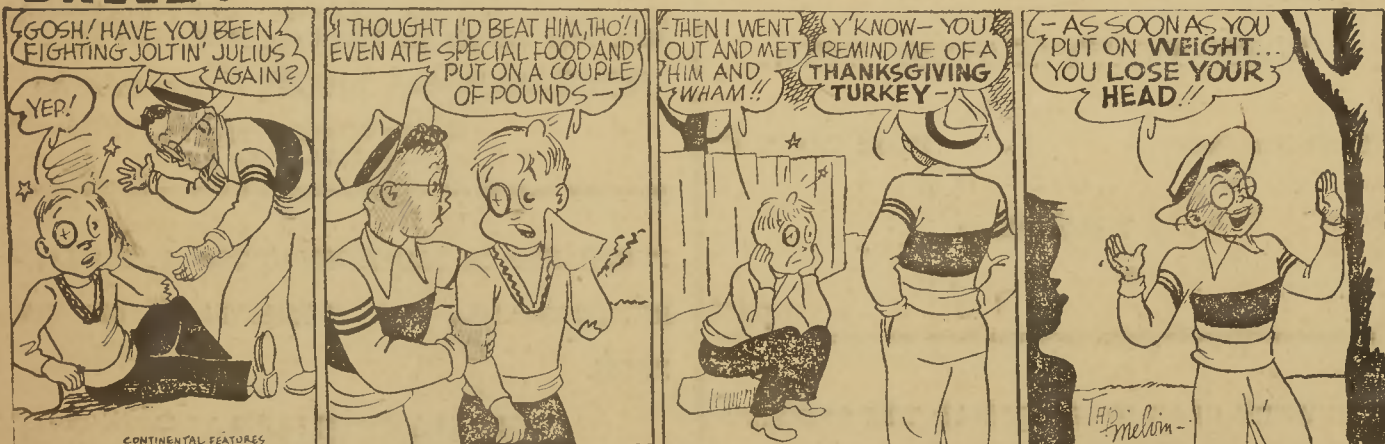

Ninety per cent of these fires, it is estimated, were caused by just average men, women, and children, who live near forests, work in them, or enjoy them for hunting, camping, and fishing. Most of them are started in the Spring when the call of the outdoors is strong, and winds are high.

In our Piedmont Carolinas . . . favored by Nature with unusually fine timberlands . . . let's do our part to preserve this wonderful gift. The way is simple:

Crush out cigarettes and matches
Carefully drown or cover campfires
