 mint green polyester angel knit featuring spaghetti strap bodice and a matching sheer chiffon cape. She wore a wrist corsage of yellow roses.
 The bridegroom's mother was gowned in an apricot qiana polyester knit featuring scoop neckline and sleeveless bodice styled with princess waistline and featuring a bow in the back. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.
 Grandparents were ushered and seated in special pews. They were Mrs. R.C. Biddix and Mrs. Gordon Hughes, grandmothers of the bride. Mrs. Biddix was gowned in a formal length light blue polyester knit dress and a corsage of white daisies. Mrs. Hughes chose a street length dress of green crepe and a corsage of white daisies.
 The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Grayson Davis selected a peach floral polyester formal featuring long sleeves and scoop neckline. She wore a corsage of white daisies.
 Charles E. Wilson was his son's best man.
 Ushers were Baron Wilson, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Herndon of Dallas and Ronnie Grigg of Kings Mountain.
 Robert Neal Wilson, cousin of the bridegroom was ring bearer.
 Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Atchley, Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carroll, Asheboro, and Mr. and Mrs. William Gordon Hughes, Paris, Arkansas, Ms. Sheila Hicks of Dallas, Mrs. Mary Ross, Bessemer City.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Betty B. Hughes of Route 4, Dixon School Road, is a 1976 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High where she was a member of the Beta, FHA and FBLA Clubs. She is employed by Dellinger's Jewel Shop as bookkeeper.
 The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson of 1050 Westover Drive, is a 1975 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School. He was a member of the Tennis Team, football team, Drafting Club. He is employed by Jenkins Metal Corporation of Gastonia.
 After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S.C., the newlyweds will be at home in Kings Mountain. For traveling, the bride chose a green qiana dress with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses lifted from her bridal bouquet.

CAKE CUTTING

Mrs. Betty B. Hughes hosted an after-rehearsal cake cutting party Saturday night at the Kings Mountain Depot Center at eight o'clock.
 The bride's table, overlaid with white lace, was centered with an arrangement of yellow daisies, baby's breath, greenery and candles. A three-tiered white wedding cake, decorated with a fresh daisy arrangement on the top layer and with daisies around the three tiers, was served at one end of the table, and yellow punch was served from a crystal bowl at the opposite end. Nuts, yellow and white mints, ham biscuits and fancy sandwiches were served from silver appointments.
 A second lace-covered table held a white tree with rice bags tied to the branches and two decorated baskets filled with rice bags which were
